Message from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the populace of the Ancient and Glorious Barony of Loch Salann, we do send greetings,

Spring has arrived and with it has come milder weather. As new life springs forth from the lands of our Barony, the events grow more numerous as well. We hope that everyone will have the opportunity to enjoy as many of these as they can. The event staffs spend a lot of time and effort to provide these events for us and we should make every effort to see that their time is well spent.

It was our pleasure to welcome Their Majesties Daman and Veronique to the Gryphon Thrones early last month in the Shire of Bronzehelm. It was a grand event which included some very well fought tournaments to select the King's and Queen's Champions, and the Defender of the Sable Rose. The feast which followed was one of the best served in the Kingdom, aided by some wonderful bardic presentations.

Upon our return from the northern reaches of the Kingdom, we found our Barony once again threatened by that dreadful Daemon Decapod, which had slithered froth from saline loch. Fortunately, the fighters and artisans of the Barony answered our call and fought the saline swilling beast into submission in some battles of heroic proportion. It was our pleasure to welcome our latest Defenders of the Barony at the feast that evening, where the Bard of Loch Salann was chosen. HE Count Ralph Bigod emerged as the Heavy Armored Defender, Don Elyas Tigar became the Rapier Defender and

HE Baroness Casamira triumphed as the Arts & Science Defender. We are confident that the Barony will be well defended over the next several months with these stalwarts keeping a vigilant watch.

The Coronation of Their Majesties has left the Kingdom without heirs to the throne. The Barony of Arn Hold has offered to provide a venue for Their Majesties to correct this situation. Early this month we plan to venture there to attend the Crown Tournament and welcome the new heirs when they have been determined. Crown Tournaments are always great events and we hope many of our populace will be able to join us the witness this historic event.

Shortly after our return from the northwest, our neighbors to the south will be hosting this year's Southern Collegium. We are excited to attend this event. Collegiums provide an unparalleled chance to not only expand our knowledge of the Middle Ages, but also share what we have learned.

With events nearly every weekend from now until fall, we are looking forward to seeing many of you that we've missed over the cold winter months and greeting new members as they join our ranks.

Bjorn Hrafnsso and Jennet Moir de Brechin

MINISTER OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Greetings to the Members of the Barony of Loch Salann!!!

I think Spring is finally here. There seems to be a lot less snow, and you can see the beginnings of growth everywhere. What a wonderful time of the year.

Defender's Tournament was a great event for those interested in the Arts & Sciences. We held the competition for a new Champion and Mistress Casamira emerged victorious. She showed her culinary skills with her mustards and her olives. She showed her brewing skill with her cordials, and she showed her metalworking skills with her Viking Wire Weaving.

We also had beautiful and amazing entries from HE Anna de Brabant and m'Lord Jevan. Don Elyas did a demonstration on rapier techniques and history and HL Brokha created and displayed his latest accomplishment, a Cross-Bow. He won the Populace Choice for his work. The competition for a new Bard was held at Defender's and we are happy to have Robin de Spencer as our new champion of the Bardic Arts. He brings so much to this achievement.

I am excited about the upcoming monthly Arts & Sciences meetings. April should prove interesting with Sister Scholastica teaching the art of boiled wool slippers. Because of multiple requests, for May we will be working on Heraldic Devices for display.

If there is a particular subject you would like to have taught as a monthly Arts & Sciences meeting, please let me know and we will do our best to make it happen.

Check out the Guilds by attending one of their monthly meetings. Additional guild information is available in the newsletter, along with contact information.

Finally, I am so thrilled to announce that I have a deputy -- Mistress Leah de Spencer. She is an amazing person with a vast font of knowledge. She will be happy to answer any questions you may have, so feel free to ask.

Happy Spring every one. May you plant the seeds of creativity and watch them grow through the year.

Yours In Service,

- Winifred de Whitehorse
