Casamira's Corner

The Pun is Mightier Than the Sword!

Loch Salann's constable, Lord Vincenzo, called the mundane authorities on a man after finding a bag of dried, five-leafed herbs hidden underneath a roll of fat in his stomach. Can you believe that? He had it hidden under a roll of fat! Talk about a pot belly!

Message from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the Most Ancient Barony of Loch Salann do We, Dunkr and Oonaugh, send greetings!

To Arms! The campaign season continues, and your Baron and Baroness are asking all able bodied fighters to join us on the heavy and rapier field, all artisans to sharpen your needles and quills! Throwers and Archers, steady your aim, for WAR IS UPON US!!!

The annual June madness arrived and was beaten back with the usual furor mustered by those of the Loch and its surrounding areas. Thank you to Lady Amhran and Sir Michael for putting together a wonderful event. Before we could rest, the Uprising hit, and we traveled forth to the land of 1000 eyes to enjoy a week of fighting, food, and fun. Thank you to Count Raven for organizing the BLS encampment and for planning the Habanero Viking party. Next year, Hawaiian T-Tunic Luau!!!

As I write this, the final preparations are being made for the SCA demo at the first Fantasy Con in Salt Lake. We are very excited and have over 120 volunteers. Huge thank yous to Amanda and Æylwin who are coordinating the parade and have been essential in bouncing ideas off of and last minute planning and setup. Tianna, Nisa, and Rebecca who are coordinating the volunteers for the booth each day. To Ralf, Raven, Brigita and Fish for coordinating the armored fighting and Nykyha and Arron for coordinating the rapier fighting.

We are also planning demos at the Salt Lake City Farmer market on Sep 27th and Oct 11th, and will need individuals to fight (heavy and rapier) and staff a booth to introduce people to the SCA. If you are interested, please contact Her Excellency Vigdis.

Early July will find us in the Lands of Arn Hold for Raptor War (we pray that the rumors of an oncoming plague in that area are just that, and we will return healthy). July will end much as June started, on the Ancestral Youngforest estate, where we (and we expect several of the members of our populace) will be vying for title of Kingdom Champion in various areas.

Finally, August 9th will be Baroness' War at the Mt Ogden Archery Range. It appears while HE Vilhelm and I have been bickering, a mysterious and secret admirer has come on the scene, attempting to earn the favors of our good baronesses by lavishing them with gifts. He overplayed his hand at uprising, lavishing ALL the Baronesses with gifts, and was found out. This has caused quite the tussle between the Baronesses and they are forming armies to do battle. It appears he has courted other Baronesses in the Kingdom as well, and many armies are being formed to converge on that weekend. Any landed Baron or Baroness can rally an army of Heavy and or Rapier Fighters, Weapon Throwers, or Archers.

I am making plans at this time to attend Great Western War in October as we wind down the campaign season. If any wish to join me, please let me know.

Our officer corp. is stable and looking for deputies in nearly every office. If you have ever wanted to help server your Barony, taking the role as a deputy is a great way to learn how!

We look forward to seeing you all at more events this Summer!

Dunkr Ormrhandleggr & Oonaugh Inghean Glaisne

SENESCHAL

The Summer sun has begun to beat down upon us. We went from nice to HOT in just a matter of days, it seems. Fighter practice is in full swing at the summer site of Sugarhouse Park and archery is now at two different sites. One practice is in town at the archery range and the other is at a new outdoor site, 13076 South Wheatfield Way (40 West), in Draper and going well.

We were invited to participate in Fantasy Con over the 4th of July weekend. Unfortunately I was out of town with family – mainly my grandson (big smiles & sighs here). I have yet to hear how fantastic and wonderful everything was and went. Thanks to the many members of the populace that made such a tremendous showing of support to both the group and Fantasy Con and the event.

The weeks are just flying by, and Baron's (oops!) Baroness' War is just around the corner. I have heard rumors that the everlasting peace that exists between Loch Salann and Gryphon's Lair has suffer a little bit discord and is in a state of unrest. I fear that should this situation continue on the current course we may be looking at another Baron's War. So be prepared noble fighters of the barony to fight for the honor of your chosen Baroness.

I was recently contacted by the events supervisor of Hogle Zoo asking us if we would like to participate in ZooLights this year. Here is the message I received:

"Hello, I found out about your group while working with FantasyCon and wanted to see if you might be interested in having a 1700's themed night at ZooLights this year?"

ZooLights is an evening holiday light event at the zoo which will run November 29th through December 31st this year. Last year we had some different themed nights including Star Wars night, Superhero Night, etc. I think it would be great to have your group involved as well. There is no fee, and anyone who participated would get to come in for free and enjoy the lights as well. There are outdoor areas as well as a few indoor areas and a heated 20x30' tent that you can use for classes, music, art, whatever you think might be fun.

Your group and themed night would be promoted on our website, facebook, etc and we would promote you on zoo grounds that night as well.

Please let me know if you are interested and we can work out the details."

I think this is another awesome opportunity to get our group out there as well as work with and support our local community. Please let me know your comments and whether or not you would be interested in participating at seneschal@loch-salann.org

I am still looking for an event steward for Defender's Tourney 2015. We currently have event stewards for all of the barony's events through 2014.

And here again is your seneschal's all wise and prudent saying: Please be safe and above all courteous in your travels. Remember that you not only represent yourself but you represent the

Barony of Loch Salann, as well. But mostly please be safe in your travels. I came back from my travels this past holiday weekend and the reports of all the tragic accidents were sad to hear. I even passed a few of those on my way home. I would hate to lose any of my SCA friends and family to such a sad happening.

Respectfully In Service to the Dream,

Baroness Sheelaegh mac Cathail
Seneschal – Barony of Loch Salann

MINISTER OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Greetings unto the ancient and honorable Barony of Loch Salann!

A brief reminder to all guild masters: please forward to me a monthly summary of your activity and classes, projects, outings, etc. I would love to make a monthly guild focus to add into the Quill! Congrats to our two newest guild, who are in process of writing their formal charter paperwork: The Blacksmiths Guild and the Apothecary/ Herbalist Guild! Vivat!!!

There are many amazing projects being made here in the Barony and surrounding areas and throughout the kingdom. Let your work be seen and appreciated by many! I encourage you to use any means possible to share your passion for the arts; Facebook, Twitter, email and of course, my favorite: A&S competitions and displays! As always, I wish to celebrate your skills and encourage everyone to branch out and learn something new. In the desire to keep learning and share skills with others, this summer I have challenged myself to learn ten new things! So far the experience has been fun and exciting and forced me out of my usual comfort zone.

I encourage all of you to make a similar challenge of five or ten new skills and share your experiences with each other and the populace in general! So far I have learned to play circle chess and nine men's morris, though I need much more practice! This past year I have learned how to make a bascinet helm, articulate armor for knees and elbows; and to make pauldrons; I am now learning to make basket hilts; and I will share a project in making a rommelpot: Dutch drum instrument made from ceramics. I am trying to learn some of the new songs for bardic and learning to tell a historic take or two... And the quest continues...

There is no skill too small or too simple; make a goal fitting your time and resources. Don't let your artwork collect dust or live in obscurity! Share with all of us; from scrolls, calligraphy and illumination to historic research or armoring projects, weaving and drop spindle; whatever you are doing, share it with us! As always, contact me or our wonderful guilds to schedule time for sharing the passion of learning!

Please share your challenge in any way you would like and take photos!! Forward to me a short description and I will be happy to make you the next focus article on the artist's corner: This month take a look at Don Elyas' work in pottery!

Yours in service to the Dream,

Lord Æylwin de Spencer
Minister of Arts & Sciences – Barony of Loch Salann

~~Baron's War~~ Baronesses

One Machiavellian scheme after another has plagued our fair realm. Plot and counterplot.; lies, tricks, and deceit. It seems as if we are no longer in fair Artemisia but in Constantinople and the Byzantine Empire; that ancient land of intrigue. It will not be long until war erupts. The main antagonists in this sordid affair are the beautiful Barony of Gryphon's Lair and the most honorable and ancient Barony of Loch Salann; however, in this perfectly Byzantine mess, any court or landed ~~Baron~~ may sponsor fighters and lead them in to battle... to further their own schemes or those of their allies.

Baroness Baronesses

Barony Workshop

Greetings unto the populace of Loch Salann!

It is once again time for another workshop here in our Barony.

For our workshop in July we will be focusing on everything feast! Have you had an amazing feast and wondered how the feast steward put it all together? Do you love to cook and would like to be a part of cooking and preparing the feast, but aren't sure where to start? From budget and planning, to how to cook for large groups of people, and absolutely everything else in between, this workshop will cover everything you will need to know to be a feast steward.

HE Sheelaegh will be hosting this workshop on July 19th from 10am-2pm. The location is still to be determined, and will be posted on both the Baronial and Kingdom Newcomers Facebook pages, as well as sent out through email, so watch for that information to come very soon.

This is a an amazing opportunity, so please come out and learn something new and have some fun too!

Hope to see many of you there!

YIS,
Lady Clíodhna Uí Fearadhaigh

A JOURNEY THROUGH MEDIEVAL POTTERY

By Don Elyas Tigar

Side note from Æylwin: Recently I have had the pleasure to go on a clay dig with Don Elyas and my daughter, Aleah, Rachel Quist and her son Chris. This article is a follow up from that dig as Don Elyas shares what he did with this clay to make some amazing Majolica Ceramics. He displayed them at Uprising Laurel Prize Tourney.

The process I follow comes from the Three Books of the Potters Art the only pottery treatise we have from before the 17th century. While I follow the same process and decoration styles I use modern ingredients for the glaze and paint, because in period ALL that stuff contain toxic materials most common of which is lead. After looking through source materials and deciding what I want the pottery to look like, I realized I had the following tasks:

1. Get and prepare clay. This was accomplished in hiking the Jordan river in the Salt Lake Valley where we found a bed of Lake Bonneville compressed clay .
2. Throw and trim shapes on a kick wheel (which is period in the 12th to 16th century)
3. Dry and bisque fire to cone 04/ 06.
4. Dip or paint pieces with a white base (often referred to as majolica)
5. Then I put the outline of the design on: in period they used drawings with holes poked in it and then charcoal powder, I used graphite and sketched the outlines.
6. Then paint them with underglaze and put a thin coat of clear glaze over the top.
7. Put them back in the kiln for a second firing cross my fingers and
8. Hope for the best.

If anyone would like to try a similar project, please feel free to contact Don Elyas and/or Æylwin for training on techniques, local clay digs and more!

The Loch Salann Cook's Guild would like to share this great recipe so you can try it on those hot summer days.

White Garlic Soup

Sopa de Ajo Blanco

4 servings

- 4 oz (1/2 cup) blanched, peeled almonds
- 3-4 slices stale baguette or white bread – or equivalent quantity of bread crumbs
- 3 cloves garlic (you can be generous and add more if small!)
- 4 cups (32 oz) water
- 5 Tbsp extra virgin Spanish olive oil
- 3-4 Tbsp Spanish sherry vinegar
- salt to taste
- 16-20 seedless green grapes (optional to be served with the soup)

NOTE: Our medieval ancestors had to grind the ingredients with a mortar and pestle. We cheated!

Cooking directions:

Blanch and peel almonds. Dry thoroughly with paper towel and set aside.

Peel garlic. Place garlic and almonds into a food processor or blender. Blend on pulse until smooth.

Add bread (crumbs) and pulse. Slowly add olive oil, vinegar and then water into the blender. Taste. Adjust salt, vinegar and oil to taste. Strain through a sieve into a container or bowl. Press as much as possible through the sieve. NOTE: since everything was blended, why strain it??? We didn't!

Seal and chill at least 2-3 hours or overnight. Serve in chilled bowls with grapes on side.

NOTE: To rapidly chill the soup, a) use COLD water, b) place the bowl or container of white garlic soup in a larger bowl with ice water for 5-10 minutes.

The flavor was stronger when stored overnight.

The Spanish Sherry Vinegar is available locally at Millcreek Olive Oil. Very yummy!
