This is the Questing Quill, published by and for the members of the Barony of Loch Salann of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. The Questing Quill is available from the Chronicler for $15 per year. Checks should be made payable to 'The Barony of Loch Salann, SCA Inc' and sent to the Baronial Exchequer. This is not a corporate publication of the SCA and does not delineate SCA Policies.

Contents of the Quill are copyright 2009, The Barony of Loch Salann. Except where otherwise stated, all articles in this publication may be reprinted without special permission in newsletters and other branches of the SCA, Inc. subject to the following restrictions:

1. The text must be printed in its entirety, without additions or changes.
2. The author's name and original publication must be printed with the text.
3. You must send a letter to the Chronicler, stating which articles have been used and where they are being reprinted.

The submission deadline is the 20th of the month, prior to the month in which you wish your submission to appear. Example, if you wish to have your article in the June Quill, you must have it submitted by May 20th. Anything received after date that may not be printed until the next issue. Articles should be submitted electronically whenever possible.

Submitters should take into consideration the page layout for the Questing Quill. I use Microsoft Word, page set up is landscape with a .75 or .5 margin on all sides. Most pages use either 10 or 12 pitch font. Whenever possible, your original will be published as is, however to fit the page some adjustments may be required which could alter the layout of your original.

A Few Words from the Baron and Baroness

We offer thanks to all those who went to war and all those who remained behind. Many from our fair Barony showed their true mettle on the fields of Estrella.

M'lord Francisco out-shot all other Artemisian archers in the Target Archery War Point. Baroness Casamira was part of the Iron Chef team who won this extraordinary competition for the second year in a row. Lord Bjorn took second place in Arts and Sciences. The Rapiers and Heavy fighters meted-out far more than would be expected from our numbers. Even your (somewhat less than humble) Baron took second place in the Archery Rose Tournament. Our thanks goes to all those who helped to make the Loch Salann encampment a most comfortable home. Special thanks must be offered to her Ladyship Sajah as the camp coordinator and to Sir Raven (I like the sound of that) who managed all of the victualling. We also offer thanks to those who tended to the needs of our Barony while we were away. Practices, teaching and service continued even while we were away. We are twice blessed.

Change is upon us. One can feel it in the earth and smell it in the air. The days are growing longer; the first buds of spring are beginning to appear; and the dogs of war have returned to whimpering in their dens. Tournament season is upon us and, as usual, the Ancient Barony of Loch Salann will lead the way. The Baronial Defenders will be selected come the 14th of March. For the first time, all Defenders will vie on this one day. Fighters, Artisans, Duelists, Archers ready thyselfes. This will prove to be a glorious, enjoyable day for all. A week before this, Loch Salann will be hosting a special celebration for Their Majesties and Their Highnesses. There is even more to come. So, People of the Loch, prepare yourselves for the challenges and fun of the coming moons!

Your Servants,

Ryryd
Baron

Anna
Baroness

Congratulations to the newest member of the Order of the Chivalry:

Sir Raven MacLeod

Your Barony NEEDS YOU!!!

The Following Offices are Still Vacant!!!

Minister of the Lists
Youth Combat Officer

The Following Officers still Need Deputies!!!

Deputy Seneschal
Deputy Exchequer
Deputy Rapier Marshal
Deputy Chronicler
Deputy Youth Officer
Deputy Sheriff
Deputy Chirurgeon

Greetings From the Seneschal:

Unto the Populace of the ancient and glorious Barony of Loch Salann here are the words of your Seneschal, Greetings. I hope this missive finds everyone safely home from the Estrella War and ready for a full tournament season closer to home. First on our list will be Coronation on March 7th. Dame Theodora has been working diligently since before we left for the southern war and has put together a wonderful event for your enjoyment. Not only will be welcoming our new rulers of the kingdom but some of the prize winning siege cooking team will be preparing a feast to be envied by all who miss out.

At the Defenders' Tournament we will once again be choosing our new Baronial champions for the coming year. This year the Archery championship will also be held at the Defenders' Tournament so all of our champions (fighters, duelists, archers, and arts & science) will be selected at the same event.

Not long after the above, it will be time for the Combined Collegium, this year to be held at the Davis County Event Center and autocrated by our own Duke Sir Sean Tarragon. He has arranged for a noted duelist and a local anthropologist to present a series of special classes to augment those being taught by our local instructors.

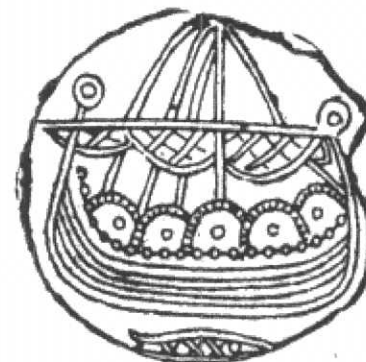

Following along in June will be Melee Madness, which is again to be held at the Castle in Provo, one of the favorite sites for melee battles and a lovely place to camp. Also, I have been hearing rumors that there may be a Barons' War for our summer camping event which should provide a lot of interest and excitement as the time draws near.

Our officers corps is complete with the exception of a List Minister, although we have someone who will soon be filling this office in mind. However many of our officers are looking for deputies to assist and learn about the operation of the Barony first hand. Elsewhere in this issue you will find a listing of the those opportunities and I hope that any of you that have an interest in a particular area will take this opportunity to add your name to those who are helping to keep the Dream alive in Loch Salann.

Yours in Service to the Barony of Loch Salann,

Bjorn Hrafnsen

Seneschal

Greetings from the MoAS:

Our A & S Night held on February 20th was a wonderful evening of reviewing the A&S entries at Estrella and the knighting of our own Sir Raven. Mistress Jerilyn had taken many pictures of the archery, the processions, and all the activities. Those present were able to identify many of their friends. The fighting and other activities are addressed elsewhere, but our A&S areas did very well. Lord Bjorn won 2nd place in the A&S competition with his 16th Century Backstaff and the Siege Cooking Champions of last year defended their title successfully, again coming away with first place! Mistress Leah was a gracious hostess and snacks were enjoyed by all. Mistress Jerilyn can try out new recipes on us anytime, as she likes to make desserts.

The next meeting, March 20, will be held at the same place. Her address is 2359 Cavalier Drive, which is 7305 South. The easiest way for me to get there is from 2300 East. For your edification, this meeting, Lady Ashe'el has agreed to show her wonderful hats and show us the methods used in making them. Please bring a snack to share and a beverage of your choice. Everyone loves to see projects on which others are working and get tips, so bring any works in progress along, also.

There have now been two Bardic Events. There were about 7 at the first and 13 at the second, so the word is spreading of the fun available. The third Bardic will be held by Lady Amanda de

Spencer on the first Sunday evening of the month, March 1, about 7 p.m., and will be held at the home of her parents, 2359 Cavalier Drive, which is detailed above. Sunday was chosen so that everyone would have an opportunity to participate, as there are no other guilds or practices scheduled for that day of the week. Our summer events will include several bardics, so this is an opportunity to learn some of the customs and practices that were used in the early years of our Barony.

Each week at Fighter Practice, there is an informal A & S circle with answers and inspiration to share. Please join. His Lordship James of Penmore shares his period games. Feel free to ask about anything you see and maybe you will start a new project yourself.

An Armor workshop was held Saturday, February 28th, at the home of Lord Bohun. The loaner armor evidently needs repair.

Sir Raven and Lady Sajah held a Scribal workshop at their home February 28th, as well, to prepare scrolls and teach those interested.

The Needleworkers' Guild meets the 1st Tuesday of each month. Please contact Lady Aurora de Portugal or THL Bethoc for more information. We have some plans in the works.

The Cooks' Guild meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month. This month that would be the 24th. Contact Mistress Casamira for the location and any other details. Our cooks are known through the Kingdom for their wonders. We are so lucky and well-fed. This month we met on Monday, Feb 23rd because Forum was held on the 4th Tuesday. We prepared so many of the dishes created by the Siege Cooking Team, but the favorite was a chicken soup with oranges. Surprising and wonderful.

The Loch Salann Musician's Guild provides wonderful music for our events. They research instruments and music used in the Middle Ages. Meetings are conducted Thursdays from 7:15 to 9:00 p.m. Please contact Mistress Anne (466-7300) for the location of the meeting and any additional information.

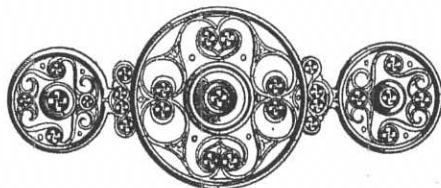

The Brewers Guild is led by Baron Ryryd ap Gwerstan. We look forward to his next meeting.

Lord Aeylwin de Spencer has offered to teach Ceramics to interested gentles at the Mount Jordan Middle School on weekday afternoons from 3 to 5 p.m. Please contact him ahead of time to schedule a specific date. albertwise@hotmail.com or 801-520-5482. If you saw his bowls at Solstice Court, you will want him to teach you!

As I endeavor to serve you, please let me know of any other guilds or groups holding meetings. Also, if you have talents to share, please let me know as we set up the programs for the New Year. I am relying on each of you to support, assist, and inspire me. What would you like to learn?

Yours in Service,

Lady Jennet Moir de Brechin

BARONIAL ARTS & SCIENCES COMPETITION REQUIREMENTS

Individuals entering to compete for the Loch Salann Baronial Championship, must follow these guidelines and submit your entries by 11:00 a.m., 3/14/09. Those not entering to compete for Champion may enter up to 3 individual items. These may be judged by fewer judges.

1. The entrant must have entries in a minimum of 3 Grand Categories, with a maximum of 8 entries.
2. The entrant be aware that documentation counts in the scoring. Written documentation is required. The minimum documentation is "Kitten's Documentation Form" as found in the March 2009 issue of The Sage Advice. The article is by Baroness Casamira, Kingdom MOAS.
3. The entrant must be a member in good standing of the Barony of Loch Salann and present a current membership card.

The form in the Sage Advice is from Kitten Reames, mka:Duchess Caterina de Forza d'Agro, OL, OP, Atlantia: Kitten's EASY A.B.C. Documentation Form.

A list of Grand Categories and Sub Categories can be found in the Artemisia A&S Handbook. Section III-Guidelines for Judges and Entrants.

<http://www.moas.artemisia.sca.org/handbook/handbook.htm>

If you are nervous about documentation, please feel free to contact me, janet@altamistalpacas.com, or my deputy, Mistress Leah, holdtytel@aol.com. Don't hesitate to enter, consider that this is a great opportunity to fine-tune your entries for the Kingdom A&S Competition in May or simply to share some of the wonderful items on which you are working.

YIS,

Lady Jennet

Coronation
Barony of Loch Salann
March 7, 2009

The time has come to celebrate the half year anniversary of His Majesty's "rebirth" in grand style in the most ancient and honorable Barony of Loch Salann. The day will be filled with tournaments, ceremonies and other activities to please the populace. Full details for the day's activities may be found at <http://loch-salann.org> or by contacting the autocrat.

The feast will be prepared by Baroness Casamira Jawjalny and her most able kitchen assistants, and will be featuring a lot of His Highness' preference - MEAT! Feast reservations are limited to the first 125 prepaid reservations. Offboard seating will be available - if you are interested, please contact the autocrats in advance so arrangements may be made. If you wish to partake in the feast, please send your reservations, payable to the Barony of Loch Salann, SCA, Inc., to the autocrat, Dame Theodora, c/o Rachael Emborg 7400 S. State St. #2101 Midvale, UT 84047. For each reservation, please send a list including modern and SCA names for each individual, as well as ages of children. If you wish to receive confirmation, please include a self addressed stamped envelope or your email address. Feast reservations must be postmarked by February 21, 2009. "If you are also mailing prepaid reservations for Loch Salann's Defender Tourney, please send them seperately so they may be properly documented. Thank you!!"

The site is the Zion Building at the Utah State Fairpark, located at 155 North 1000 West in Salt Lake City. Make your way to Interstate Highway 15. Take the 600 North off ramp (Exit 309) and turn West. Proceed to 1000 West and turn left. Proceed south bound on 1000 West four blocks (about 7/10 mile) until you see the Fairpark on your right. Go through the gate and straight ahead.

The site is damp and opens at 10am and closes at 10pm. No pets, except of course service animals, are permitted. Tournaments will be fought outdoors and due to site restrictions, pavilions are not permitted. Loch Salann Defender Tourney
Barony of Loch Salann
March 14, 2009

Once again that saline swilling daemon decapod does slink slither and slide its slimy self to the surface of the salty loch from whence our barony does draw it's name and once again a call goes forth unto the people of Loch Salann for warriors to step forward and be counted ready. Loch Salann does call all ready men and women of cote armor, all practitioners of the arte of defense and archers of renown to test their mettle and that of their brothers at arms. A tournament will be held for the right to declare one lady or lord of inspiration the lord or lady shrimp bait. Please join us for a full day of activities to celebrate the occasion.

Feast will be prepared by Lord Darius and Lord Sieg. Please contact the autocrat with questions about the feast. The feast menu will be posted at <http://loch-salann.org> as soon as it is finalized. Feast is limited to the first 75 paid reservations. Offboard seating may be available - if you are interested, please contact the autocrat in advance so arrangements may be made. Arrows' Flight Mystery Event

Greetings all! Be welcome to the Province of Arrows' Flight's annual Mystery Event on March 28, 2009. This year's mystery is—what will we find at the castle under the melting snow? Come and place your votes for what you think our Sheriff will find—will it be treasure? Will it be a saintly relic? Will it be the head of a deposed tyrant? Cast your vote and see how the mystery unravels...

Because this is Arrows' Flight's annual Very Silly™ event, the usual mayhem will be represented, including the soda straw rapier tourney and the annual bad garb competition (period garb attempts only—no coconuts, grass skirts, tutus, fairy wings, etc.).

We will also have such merriments as dancing and feasting, youth activities and youth combat. A bag raffle fundraiser for the Province is also planned—donations of goods and services are welcome.

There will be a "What Went Wrong Here?" Arts & Sciences competition. We've all had projects that didn't—quite—turn out like we planned, or that maybe seemed like a good idea at the time. Bring your 'oopsies' to display. A prize for "most epic failure" will be awarded. Documentation required describing what you tried to do, and why it didn't turn out like you planned. Be as specific as possible, following normal documentation guidelines. If you have questions about the Arts & Sciences competition, please contact m' lady Marguerite at as@arrows-flight.org.

Our rapier and heavy armored fighting marshals are planning fun and fierce melees and tournaments, please bring your gear and be ready to fight!

In the tradition of service and charity, Arrows' Flight will once again be gathering nonperishable food items for the local food bank. The need for donations is just as great now as during the holiday season—please do what Artemisians do best, and give generously. Charity is one of the Knightly Virtues.

The site is the American Fork Senior Center, 54 E Main St, American Fork, UT. Directions: Take your best route to I-15 and exit #278 (Main St.) in American Fork, UT. Turn East from the exit, past several shopping outlets to downtown American Fork. Stay on Main Street for approximately 1.1 miles. The site is on your right. There is a parking lot behind the Center, but you have to turn in at the business next door. There will be signs at the site.

This is a dry site, no pets please. Site is handicapped accessible. Site opens at 10 a.m. and closes at 10:00 p.m.

Site fee: Adults: $5.00
Children (6-14): $3.00
Children (5 and under): free
Family Cap: $16.00
Feast fee: Adults: $8.00
Children (6-14): $4.00
Children (5 and under): free
Non-member surcharge: $3.00 each

The feast menu and feast steward information will be posted to www.arrows-flight.org when it is available. Additional event info will also be posted to the web site.

Please note that due to new site restrictions, merchanting cannot be accommodated at this event (and we're really sorry about that!). However, merchants, please come to our Middle Eastern War in Moab...coming in May 2009.

Jan 27, 09 cook's guild

Scottish Cooking is a challenge! The first records of Scottish recipes is an unpublished manuscript dated 1710. Catherine Brown is one of the well known writers on Scottish cooking. By taking "records of trade, agriculture and fishing . . . descriptions from traveler . . . (and) household accounts", Ms. Brown put together several pamphlets and cookbooks. Trade with Europe, particularly France occurred during the middle ages and affected food customs, especially introducing spices, such as ginger.

The Scots are very frugal and use everything available.

Tongue from beef, sheep and other animals were mentioned. So, I decided the cook's guild needed to eat tongue - and I had a beef tongue.

Instructions were very basic. Boil the tongue for a long time in spices. Peel and slice the lean meat, and serve it in a sauce.

For the cook's guild dish, I simmered the tongue for over 4 hours in a handful of pickling spices and 2 sliced onion. I refrigerated the tongue for use the next day. I saved some of the liquid for use in the brown sauce.

The basic brown sauce starts with a roux diluted with beef broth. I used some beef broth concentrate and some of the juice with pickling spices. To enhance the flavor, I added sautéed onions and mushrooms.

I made the sauce and added the cold, slices of tongue. I added enough water to cover the tongue so it would heat, and the sauce became more of a soup than a sauce.

The flavor was excellent and I was disappointed that there weren't more leftovers!

Chicken barley soup - recipe

Chicken Barley Soup Use leftover chicken or turkey to make this light broth-based soup.

3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Fresh parsley sprigs, optional

2 large onions, thinly sliced

2 clove garlic, pressed or minced

2 quarts regular-strength chicken broth

1 cup barley

1/4 teaspoon anise seed

3 small carrots, peeled

2 medium-size oranges

2+ cups shredded cooked chicken or turkey

In a 4-quart pan, melt the butter over medium heat. Add onion and garlic; stir until onion is limp. Add broth (Chicken bullion + water), barley, and anise seed. Cover and simmer until barley is tender to bite, about 30 minutes. Cut carrots into 1/4-inch slices and add to broth; continue simmering, covered, until carrots are tender to bite, about 10 minutes longer. Grate enough peel from oranges to make 1/4 teaspoon. Cut peel and white membrane from oranges and cut segments free. When carrots are done, add orange peel, orange segments, and chicken. Simmer, covered, until chicken is hot, about 5 minutes longer. Garnish with parsley.

Probability of period use of oranges is minimal!

Carrot custard:

4 eggs, buttermilk, honey, carrots, cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, salt.

Cook carrots. (Microwave sliced carrots?)

Mash

Add eggs, buttermilk, honey and spices.

Mix.

Pour into a pan (mould) and boil (steam) for about 60 minutes???

Cool and unmold.

KID'S KORNER

Almoner's Pouch, by THL Bethoc du Crawford

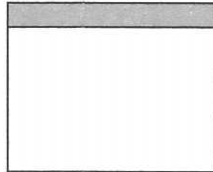

In the middle ages poor and disabled people would sit outside the gates of the castle and beg for money, this was usually called 'alms'. This is how they made their living.

To make an Almoner pouch.

Start with a rectangle of fabric. Felt squares at the craft store work really well for this.

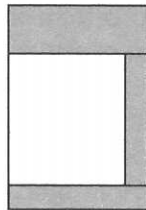

Fold the top over about 1/2 to 1 inch from the top and sew a 'hem'.

Sew all the way across the line hemline

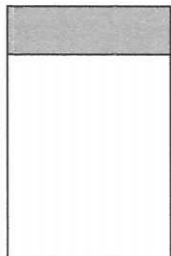

Fold the fabric over lengthwise so that the long edges are together.

Leaving the 'hem end open, sew a thin seam, all along the long edge, then all the way across the bottom edge. This makes kind of a long pocket.

Turn your pouch inside out so that all the sewn edges and seams are on the inside.

<<<< string goes here

Thread a string or ribbon through the 'hemmed end of the pouch and tie the ends together. Make the string long enough so that you can use it to pull your pouch shut, tie it so it stays shut, and put your belt through the loop.

Now when you walk past the poor people, you can easily reach into your pouch and give them a coin.
