A Few Words from the Baron and Baroness

A Time for Harvest, Quiet, and Reflection

The leaves have changed and a cool wind blows from the north. A hush descends upon the lands as fighters store their armor and swords, and archers move indoors. Already, stockpiling of foodstuffs and warm clothes is underway. We contemplate the year past with fond remembrance:

*A wonderful Solstice Court, where our fine Barony honored our past Baronages and provided us with the privilege of serving all of you.
A Crown Tournament, where two of our own gained the Gryphon Thrones.
A Defender's Tournament, where all of our Baronial Defenders vied for their positions on the same day.
A Combined Collegium, where scores came to learn and teach.
Melee Madness, where we could host the whole Kingdom with fighting, games, food, archery, and fun.
A sudden, strange obsession with sheep.
The return of Baron's War, complete with as much seriousness as it truly deserves.
One of our own earning the vambrace of the Kingdom Archery Champion and also the first ever Kingdom Thrown Weapons Champion.*

It has been a good year. We thank you all.

But we are not quite done yet. Solstice Court will soon be upon us. Plans are in full swing for gaming tournaments, displays of Arts and Sciences, music, dancing, and a fine feast. Please join us for a somewhat quieter day. We have all earned our rest.

Be warned, though. Already from the south come the rumors of war. Do not let lethargy overtake thee. We will speak of this at another time...

*May your larders be full and your homes know peace,
Your Servants*

*Ryryd
Baron*

*Anna
Baroness*

Greetings From the Seneschal:

Unto the Populace of the ancient and glorious Barony of Loch Salann here are the words of your Seneschal, Greetings.

As the tournament season winds its way to a close, October began the month with our fall Crown Tournament where the newest heirs to the Gryphon throne were announced at the conclusion of a glorious day of fighting.

The following week Kingdom Championships were held for the equestrians, archers and thrown weapons. Although the weather was somewhat chilly it did not dampen the spirits of those on hand to contest for the titles.

Our weekly martial practices have moved indoors for the upcoming winter season. Fighter practice is being held at Mount Jordan Middle School, on 90th South and 3rd East again this year starting in October. Archery practice has returned to Salt Lake Archery in Sugarhouse and thrown weapons practice has been discontinued until Spring.

Although our officer group is well staffed at this time we are still in need of deputies for the offices of Exchequer and Chronicler. Please consider volunteering to assist with these duties so that we can continue to provide the support the Barony needs to prosper.

The Calendar of Events has been finalized for 2010 and dates requested for 2011 for our events which will be published in the near future. The budget for 2010 has been prepared and discussed by the officers and Baronage and is set for approval at next months Forum.

Your event steward is preparing for a great celebration at Solstice Court in December. It is my understanding that a Middle Eastern feast is in the offing and a cribbage tournament is to held.

Yours in Service to the Barony of Loch Salann, Bjorn Hrafnson

Greetings from the MoAS:

As the snow is now on the fields and the outside preparations are hopefully done, we begin a time of preparation. For A&S participations, which should include everyone in the Barony, it is of particular importance. Solstice Court will soon be upon us and we want to provide largesse for our many distinguished guests. Items are being presented to Her Excellency, Baroness Anna, and she is most grateful. Also, there are wonderful new items of garb being diligently created to shine upon the occasion. Lady Zafirah is holding a Grand Ball and a Middle Eastern Feast. I have heard of several gentles who plan to decorate their places at feast to go along with this theme.

In conjunction with the event, there will be a display of Heraldic items. Please inform me at janet@altamistalpacas.com of your intended items for display so that we can prepare appropriate ways to display them.

Our A & S Night on October 16th was enjoyed by a very congenial group. Lady Amanda, being a teacher, had a magical device which presented the information as a "power point", definitely from her enchanted workbag! Those present were delighted to be joined by the Baroness of Fairbanks, Alaska. Although it took me over an hour to make 3 small loops, she was able to make a project: a fish. It was very amusing to hear the discussion about the proportionate size of "fish lips". A great time was had by all and I am sure we will be seeing more of these projects.

Our November meeting, scheduled for the 20th, will have two subjects. Lady Anna Andersdotter, has promised to present on "snoods", the headwear that is so popular and can be created in any color, embellished with "jewels" or other bling to go with any garb. The other purpose of the meeting is to discuss the different types of Heraldic items and discuss the possibilities for Solstice. The meeting will be held once again at the home of Mistress Leah. Her address is 2359 Cavalier Drive, which is 7305 South. The easiest way for me to get there is from 2300 East. Please notice the regular meeting date of the third Friday of the month. Please remember that there will be an A & S circle each Wednesday night at Fighter Practice. Watch the post for the subject and any special instructions. This is a great time for you to send me any requests for programs at janet@altamistalpacas.com. Please also note that there will be no meeting in December and we will begin the new year on January 21st.

Bardic night is scheduled for the first Sunday of the month and is hosted by Lady Amanda de Spencer at her home. Parking on 10600 is not legal - nor safe, so please pull along side the house on Blossom Drive. Sunday was chosen so that everyone would have an opportunity to participate, as there are no other guilds or practices scheduled for that day of the week.

The Needleworkers' Guild will meet the 1st Tuesday of the month, which is November 3rd. They plan to meet at the home of Lady Oonaugh. Please contact Lady Aurora de Portugal or THL Bethoc for more information. You can often see HE Anna, THL Bethoc, Lady Oonaugh, and Lady Aurora conferring over projects at Fighter Practice.

The Cooks' Guild meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month. In October, that was the 27th and Mistress Constance de la Rose hosted the meeting. The meal was Italian and there were many delicious dishes enjoyed by 11 gentles. Unfortunately, I was prevented from attending due to Lake Effect magical storms and will have some of the recipes for you next time.

The Loch Salann Musician's Guild provides wonderful music for our events. They research instruments and music used in the Middle Ages. Meetings are conducted Thursdays from 7:15 to 9:00 p.m. Please contact Mistress Anne (801-466-7300) for the location of the meeting and any additional information.

The next Brewers Guild meeting will be announced on line, so be on the lookout. Lord Finlay has done a great job in infusing new life into the group.

Lord Aelwyn hosted a display at his school on October 16th. There were many A&S items of Medieval interest and a display of fighting. Everyone was intrigued and we should pick up some new members through our fighter practices.

The newest Guild, Dancing and Drumming Guild, is led by Lady Zafirah Tahreer Bint Al Riyah. This energetic and enthusiastic group had an organizational meeting and there was a good turn out at drum workshop on Wednesday the 21st. There were a total of 10 drummers. Talanesia was kind enough to instruct them in a lesson of basic beladi and saidi. They learned the basic strikes: dum, kah and tek. They will hold the dance workshop this coming Wednesday, November 4th (being the first Wednesday of the month). The next drum workshop will be held on November 18th (the 3rd Wednesday of the month.) They are also planning to hold informal drum practices on Thursdays at Lady Zafirah's house. They may consider holding dance practice on Sundays, location yet to be determined, if there is enough interest.

As I endeavor to serve you, please let me know of any other guilds or groups holding meetings. Also, if you have talents to share, please let me know as we set up the programs for the New Year. I am relying on each of you to support, assist, and inspire me. What would you like to learn?

Yours in Service,
Lady Jennet Moir de Brechin
