Casamira's Corner

The Pun is Mightier Than the Sword!

A Scot and an Irishman were talking about playing golf during the various seasons of the year.” In most parts of Ireland we cannot play in the wintertime. We have to wait until spring.” “Why, in Scotland we can even play in the winter time. Snow and cold are no object to us!” exulted the Scot. “Well, what do you do? Paint your balls black?” asked the Irishman. “No, nothing that drastic,” said the Scotsman. “We just put on an extra sweater or two.”

Message from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the Most Ancient Barony of Loch Salann do We, Dunkr and Oonaugh, send greetings!

The Artemisian fall is in full swing, and winter is approaching fast. October was a busy but fun month! The first weekend of the month found us in Arn Hold, watching our own Sir Lakhan and Sir Ronan do battle for the right to be heir to the throne of the Kingdom of Artemisia, with Sir Ronan and Mistress Clare emerging as rightful heirs to the Crown. Near the final rounds of the tournament, Their Majesties called our own Sir Gregory off the field and offered him admittance into the Order of the Pelican, with his answer and acceptance to be given at court that evening.

Following this, I traveled to visit our Neighbors to the South West, the good Kingdom of Caid for their Great Western War! Make no mistake, the denizens of Caid prepare for the upcoming Talon and Crescent war, where, if Great Western was even a fraction of what can be expected, Battle will be joined, Arts and Sciences will be displayed, and cups will be raised in joyous WAR!!!

Follow this exhilarating weekend, Oonaugh and I traveled north to Sentinel's keep to celebrate the tenure of Baron Hrothgar Hrothgarsson and Baroness Adela and the installment of Antoine de Bueil as Vicar, but not before Their Majesties elevated him to the Order of the Pelican.

November brings Toys for Tots in Arrows Flight, followed by taking our chances in the plague ridden lands of Arn Hold for their Arts event, 1349.

Follow this, we venture into 1000 Eyes for their Baronial Birthday and the investiture of Symonne and Thomas.

Solstice is coming up faster than you can imagine! Lady Badahschia will be autocratting and Count Raven will be cooking a feast to warm your winter tastebuds! For those who were not in attendance at Coronation, their Majesties have sent your good Baron to contemplate joining the Order of the Pelican, with the question to be asked at Solstice. I will be sitting Vigil following morning court and invite everyone to visit. The event site is the Discovery Christian Church, 5929 South 900 East Murray, Utah. The site is wet and flames are allowed. More information is available in the Sage.

We are currently looking for a new Chatelaine, as Her Excellency Vigdis has served well beyond her two years. The rest of our officer corp. is stable and looking for deputies in nearly every office. If you have ever wanted to help server your Barony, taking the role as a deputy is a great way to learn how!

The tenure of our Chronicler is drawing to a close as well, and we are looking for someone to keep penning the quill that you are reading. If you are interested, contact our good Seneschal!

We look forward to seeing you all at more events this Fall/Winter!

Dunkr Ormrhandlegr & Oonaugh Inghean Glaisne
- Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann

SENESCHAL

Unto the great barony of Loch Salann do I, Baroness Sheelaegh, send greetings.

As many of you may have heard, we have lost our winter site for fighter practice. We are actively looking for new sites. We have a site that we are currently checking out to see if it is acceptable for fighters. The site is a recreation center located in North Salt Lake but the hours of practice has changed due to site hours of operation. Fighters will be meeting in the community center on the west side of the parking lot, not the new recreation center on the North. We have a temporary arrangement for the next few weeks, to test this site to determine suitability. Feedback is very welcome. The address is 1255 Clark Avenue (300 North), SLC UT 84116. Hope to see you all there.

It's hard to believe that I have been Seneschal for just over a year. It is my hope that I have served this Barony with honor this past year and I look forward to the year ahead. I have seen one Baron and Baroness step down and another step up. It was my privilege to serve as seneschal to Bjorn and Jennet and now to Dunkr and Oonaugh, as well as this barony.

I realize that I have been some what of an enigma these past several months, but everyday life has been the person in charge of my day to day existence, aka college. I want to say thank you so much to my officers past and present for all of their wonderful help and support as I work on completing my last year of school. Wooo hooo!!

I look forward to Solstice Court. This is our signature event as well as the peerage of HE Dunkr. Lady Badahschia has a day of festivities planned and HE Sir Raven has a feast of feasts planned as well.

Our very awesome Chronicler, Lord Jevan, has given notice of his intent to step down at Defender's Tourney. If this is an office that you be interested in doing, please contact him or myself. The Barony is still looking for members of the populace that would be interested in serving as a deputy in the many positions that are open. Officers are the backbone of the society, and are also what keeps us functioning as a whole. No one person can do it alone. Many hands make light work for the rest of us. Please consider joining with the 'force' that is the Barony and help keep the dream alive for all of us.

I wish all a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

Baroness Sheelaegh mac Cathail
Seneschal – Barony of Loch Salann

CHRONICLER

Greetings Quill readers!

I have had the pleasure of serving our great Barony as your Chronicler for the past two years and I feel it is time for me to find a suitable replacement, it is time to pass the torch to someone new and maybe try new things myself.

If you are interested in learning more about this position please do not hesitate to contact me at chronicler@loch-salann.org or 801-897-2369.

Lord Jevan Arthgen de Berwyn
Chronicler – Barony of Loch Salann

EXCHEQUER

Greetings unto the ancient and honorable Barony of Loch Salann!

The Barony needs you!!!

Currently, I am seeking a deputy (or two...or three) for the Exchequer office. If you have ever had an interest in this type of position now would be a great time to step in as a deputy and learn what this office is all about. Please feel free to contact me with questions. I would love to tell you all about the job, contact me at 801-633-8908 or Aegthelionswife@gmail.com

Yours in service,

Lady Aingeal inghean Garaidh
Exchequer – Barony of Loch Salann

KNIGHT MARSHALL

Greetings unto the ancient and honorable Barony of Loch Salann!

Loch Salann fighter practice is currently being held at the Northwest Community Center. <http://slco.org/recreation/northwest/> We will be meeting in the community center on the west side of the parking lot, not the new recreation center on the North. We have a temporary arrangement for the next few weeks, to test this site to determine suitability. Feedback is very welcome. The address is 1255 Clark Avenue (300 North), SLC UT 84116. Hope to see you all there.

Yours in service,

Lord Connal O'Doibhilin
Knight Marshal – Barony of Loch Salann

Solstice 2014

The summer crops have been laid away and preparations have been made; the longest night is nigh at hand. It is time to gather and celebrate before the long cold winter settles in. Come one, come all and join us, the Barony of Loch Salann, as we share warmth, food and laughter at our Solstice court, December 13, 2014.

Sing songs, tell tales, bring poetry to share, to delight and to inspire. Participate in the cribbage or the chess tournament. This time of year, as the outside turns dark and gray, we find comfort and joy in making our interior spaces beautiful as a reminder that winter does not last forever and in fact, the Solstice is a renewal. Bring your decorations and help make the hall beautiful.

And let us not forget the youth! Lady Arianna and m'Lady Arabella have activities planned to keep the kids entertained and help get their creative juices flowing. A visit from Father Christmas could even be in order for well-behaved boys and girls!

A soup fundraiser lunch will be held benefiting the youth program.

Feast will be provided by HE Sir Raven who is planning a fabulous Scandinavian inspired feast. Menu to follow.

Event Steward: Lady Badahschia (Ivy Turney)

Feast Steward: HE Sir Raven MacLeod (Jeff Crow)

In the early years of the Barony, before it even was a barony, many great and wonderful articles were printed in the pages of The Questing Quill. We, the Chroniclers, thought that to seek out these past articles for reprinting, would not only be enjoyable for the populace, but also could be most helpful to those who have recently joined our game. And so, from time to time, over the next few months, please enjoy the wisdom and fun that has come from our most experienced members.

Cooking Forsoothly

Paris Pie

Pastry for a double crust pie or 24 tarts

1½ lb. mixed meats (pork, beef, veal)

1 cup each broth and red wine

3 egg yolks or 1 egg+1yolk

½ tsp. each ginger, sugar, salt

¼ cup each minced dates and currents

Optional: pinch ground pepper and/or mace, cloves

Put raw meats in a saucepan and cover with wine and water, bring to boil and simmer 10 min. Drain off all cooking juices and cool them in the fridge. When set remove fat, keep meat separate.

To assemble pie-line pie plate with with pastry, put de-fatted juices in a pan and boil. Beat eggs in a bowl and add some hot juice. Beat and add rest, then mix meat, fruits, spices. Put all in a saucepan over low heat until thickend. Pour in pie crust and cover with top cover of crust. Slash top crust to allow steam to escape, put on cookie sheet.

Bake at 350 for one hour (Less for tarts)
