Casamira's Corner

The Pun is Mightier Than the Sword!

An abbey prior, who was very fond of pure, hot horseradish always kept a pot of it on his dining room table. He offered some to a guest, who took a big spoonful. When the guest finally was able to speak, he gasped, "I've heard many ministers preach hellfire, but you are the first one I've met who passed out a sample of it."

Message from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the Most Ancient Barony of Loch Salann do We, Dunkr and Oonaugh, send greetings!

The blazing heat of summer has turned to the slightly chilly days and cold evening of the Artemisian Autumn, but before we settled in for what may be a cold and snowy winter, the Harvest and the war that comes with it had to be attended to! What a wonderful way to draw the camping season to a close. The Shire of Cote du Ciel is always so welcoming and puts on a wonderful event! To make the event even more special, our Predecessor, Baroness Jennet was invited to join the Order of the Pelican and is now Dame Jennet! The event was capped off with the Lochtoberfest party, which was a smashing success. Thank you to everyone who made it possible, and especially to Lady Sabine, for taking our crazy idea and bringing them to fruition!

As I pen this missive, we are packing the war wagon for a trip to Arn Hold to watch as Artemisia's greatest warriors strive to bring honor to their consorts and for the right to lay claim to the Gryphon Thrones! Best of skill to the Lords and Ladies on Saturday!

Following this, I will be traveling deep into Caid for Great Western War! Rumors of unrest with our neighbors to the South-West have reached the highest places and require investigation! Should the rumor prove true, we may have but the brief winter to prepare for a greater war to come! Sharpen your Talon's my fellow members of the Gryphon Kingdom!!

Should I return safe, we will be traveling north to Sentinel's keep for their Harvest Court, celebrating the successful tenure of Baron Hrothgar Hrothgarsson and Baroness Adela!

Solstice is coming up faster than you can imagine! Lady Badahschia will be autocrattin and Count Raven will be cooking a feast to warm your winter tastebuds! For those who were not in attendance at Coronation, their Majesties have sent your good Baron to contemplate joining the Order of the Pelican, with the question to be asked at Solstice. I will be sitting Vigil following morning court and invite everyone to visit. The event site is the Discovery Christian Church, 5929 South 900 East Murray, Utah. The site is wet and flames are allowed. More information is available in the Sage.

Sadly, our September 27th Demo ended up rained out, we setup and were there for about two hours and the Farmers Market coordinators told us to pack up and head home. We have another Demo coming up on October 10th, and would love anyone who is willing to come out and spread the SCA with us to join.

We are currently looking for a new Chatelaine, as Her Excellency Vigdis has served well beyond her two years. The rest of our officer corp. is stable and looking for deputies in nearly every office. If you have ever wanted to help server your Barony, taking the role as a deputy is a great way to learn how!

We look forward to seeing you all at more events this Fall/Winter!

Dunkr Ormrhandlegr & Oonaugh Inghean Glaisne

SENESCHAL

Unto the great barony of Loch Salann do I, Baroness Sheelaegh, send greetings.

Vivat to Their Royal Highnesses Ronan & Clare. The year to come will see the Kingdom in good hands.

Starting 10/01 Fighter practice will be at its winter site in the warehouse of the Zion's bank building located at 1635 S Redwood Road from 7 to 9 PM. The entrance is located behind the bank (next to the drive through). Please do not block the ATM and car pool lane (parking is somewhat limited close to the building).

There is another Farmer's Market Demo this weekend October 11th. Hopefully the barony can be there to support the event. Our next demo will be at Hogal Zoo on December 6th. I am still working out all the specifics and as soon as I know them I will let everyone know.

Our cousins in Gryphon's Lair will be hosting their Autumn Ball on October 19th. I look forward to being able to get back into traveling and attending the local events again.

Soon the holiday season will be upon us and we will be hosting our annual event – Solstice Court !! Lady Badashia has a grand event planned and Count Raven has an awesome feast. It will be a day of festivities as well as HE Dunkr's Pelican Ceremony.

With the revamping of the Chatelaine's office, the Barony is still in need of several deputy officers. Please, please if you have ever wanted to get involved with helping the barony to grow, this is the office for you.

As summer comes to an end I hope all is well with the populace throughout the barony and hope to see everyone at our demos, local events and fighter practices.

Until next time, I am your humble servant and seneschal.

Baroness Sheelaegh mac Cathail

times and projects are being discussed right now, so go log on!

Guild Masters, I ask that you post something on the Barony of Loch Salann Facebook and on the Barony of Loch Salann Arts & Sciences pages to advertise your workshops and ongoing projects! As always, please keep me in the loop on your work so I can cheerlead for you!

At Solstice Court on 13 December, I would like to have an Arts and Science Display (no formal judging,) so please plan to bring some of your projects and share with us your work! Documentation is encouraged but not needed! In part I wish to offer some help leading to our Defender's Tourney on 14 March where we will select our baronial champion for A&S. Please prepare your work and let us know what classes, including how to complete documentation, you would like and we will make it happen!

I am still searching for a deputy MoAS to help organize classes and coordinate with our Chatelain's office to create classes for newcomers and more! Please contact me and TE Dunkr and Oonaugh to apply! It's a great opportunity to encourage the arts and give some newcomers a new role to serve!

If ever you are available on Tuesdays from 2:30 to 4:00 I am always searching for visiting artists to come to Alta High School to mentor our Medieval Club. Last week we learned how to make period writing quills and worked on introductory calligraphy and making celtic knotwork. Students are learning and guiding their own guild activities in metalwork, sewing and embroidery, leatherwork, scribal arts, dancing and more! Please come be a part of the excitement! Alta High School is 11055 S and 1000 E in Sandy. Come to room 2207 for Mr. Spencer-Wise and the Medieval Club!

Yours in service to the Dream,

Lord Æylwin de Spencer

Minister of Arts & Sciences – Barony of loch Salann

In the early years of the Barony, before it even was a barony, many great and wonderful articles were printed in the pages of The Questing Quill. We, the Chroniclers, thought that to seek out these past articles for reprinting, would not only be enjoyable for the populace, but also could be most helpful to those who have recently joined our game. And so, from time to time, over the next few months, please enjoy the wisdom and fun that has come from our most experienced members.

from the hearth....

An apple beverage associated with Autumn and Winter is Lambswool. Originally spelled La Mas Ushal, it came to us via the Druids.

LAMBSWOOL

2 gal. mulled ale
2 eggs
5 apples
a stones weight of honey (keep tasting)
5 pinches of nutmeg (keep tasting)
a handful of browned toast

Pour ale in a large bowl and beat in the eggs. Add nutmeg and let set overnight, covered with a tea towel, in a cool place. Dice the apples (do not core). Put into a saucepan and cover, and cook at low heat till soft (it wouldn't hurt to add a little water from time to time). Keep the apples in cool dry place overnight.

Next morning, mix honey and apples and let set for a few hours, stirring occasionally. Add mixture to mulled ale mixture, pouring back and forth till well mixed. Serve heated with browned toast floating on top.

On Nov. 5, 1604 Guy Fawkes tried to blow up King James I of England together with his Parliament. This was known as the Gunpowder Plot and it was unsuccessful. A traditional cake is the rich spicy Parkin cake. It is sometimes called a Thor cake, pointing to a possible Saxon origin. In some parts of England, November 5 is referred to as Parkin Day.

PARKIN CAKE

1/2 cup butter
2/3 cup rolled oats
1 cup all purpose flour
1 Tbsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/4 tsp. cloves
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. baking powder
(1 tsp. grated lemon rind)
1/3 cup milk
preheat oven to 350 degrees

Treacle is a light molasses, you can use that or half honey and half molasses. The lemon rind is optional. Melt butter and treacle together over a low heat. Combine the dry ingredients, mixing well. Add the butter mixture, alternately with the milk, to the dry ingredients, combining until everything is just moist. The batter will be a bit thin. Bake for 30 to 35 minutes in a greased pan. (May want to line with waxed paper. It does tend to stick.)
