Warm wishes and pleasant greetings unto the populace of Loch Salann from Their Excellencies Timmur and Tianna, Baron and Baroness.

Winter leaves us with a wonderful Coronation. A fond congratulations to Their Majesties and a spectacular event. A dazzling Thank you to Mistress Aurelia for her diligence and hard work to steward such an undertaking. Well done and thank you. Old friends and new came together in a sparkling display of hospitality and splendor. Welcoming friends from other Kingdoms and meeting such wonderful people made this event a delight and joy to ring the heralds on. A heartfelt congratulations also to Ralph Bygod, whose days just didn't seem to end.

Onto warmer months and camping events. Our calendar is filled to the brim with exciting antics and merriment as we parade over the countryside to such gatherings as St. Pyre's Tourney, Camping Quest, Melee Madness and Uprising. We urge you all to come and enjoy what the weather will award us.

Crown Tournament will be held in Twae Linnes as a three day event. Banners, feasting, and fighting, all to be nicely tucked away in the placement of a new Crown Prince and Princess come its conclusion. Please review the event article and reserve early for camp and feasting space. We look forward to see you all there en masse. For now, I leave you to the articles at hand.

Be well.

Timmur & Tianna

From the Seneschal

HOW CAN YOU GET MORE OUT OF THE "GAME?"

Have you ever sat at an event and wondered, "Why am I here?" SCA is not a game that can be observed, it is a game that must be played. Right now there are several offices that are in search of deputies.

Being a Deputy will—

- give you a chance to be of service,
- allow you to learn more about how things are done in the barony,
- give you a chance to make friends with people in the barony who are making things happen,
- make it possible for your good ideas to be heard,
- give you something to do at events,
- help one of our overworked officers so that they can enjoy an event.

What you need to do is—

1. Decide on what office/officer you want to help
2. Talk to the officer and see what kinds of things they need you to do
3. Write a letter (3 copies of the same letter) one to the officer, one to the Baron/Baroness and one to the seneschal (e-mails work just fine)
4. And then be ready to add new experiences and more fun to your game.

Right now we are looking for Deputies for the following offices

From the Hospitaller's Office

Unto the citizens of the Ancient Barony of Loch Salann does the office of the Hospitaller send fond greetings.

As you know one of the ways that we can grow as a group is to show people what were all about. We have two very exciting opportunities to show our colors in the near future. We also have so fun projects on the horizon so read on!

The first is a Presentation for the Boy Scouts of America at their Annual Scout-o-Rama this is an all day demo opportunity so you can come and server you Barony anytime between 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. We need support from everyone for this occasion. We need Heavy Fighters, Rapierists, Dancers, Musicians, Jugglers and Artisans. This ia a great way for us to help our community and recruit new members so let me know when and how you would like to help out.

The second Presentation we have is for the Granite School District. This will be a weekday demo for 9:00 a.m. to about 1:00 p.m. I know that a demo during the day can be a hardship but this is a great opportunity for us not only in that we will be providing community service and gaining public recognition but this will be a PAID demo. Adding money to the baronial coffers again We need Heavy Fighters, Rapierists, Dancers, Musicians, Jugglers and Artisans. In addition we need someone who would be willing to do a presentation on Mediaeval/ Renaissance daily life and courtly manners.

We are looking into repeating the demo for the Utah State Fair anyone interested in participating or helping to set up this demo please contact me.

We need your help! We are putting together a collage for advertisements in local venues. Bring your favorite SCA Picture to fighter practice or e-mail it to me at hospitaller@lochsalamn.org. If you would like to help with this project please let me know. In addition we are working on some articles that we can place in local newspapers. What do you love about the SCA? I would like to share some personal experiences of those in our Barony.

So that's it for now two demos scheduled, one in the planning stages. Two great projects in the works. What can you do for your Barony?

Six months before the date of the event, the autocrat should locate a site and reserve it if possible. For some sites, 6 months is not enough advance notice, so be aware of the normal availability for your favored site. At the very least, you should start looking for a site and begin to negotiate a contract for reserving it at the 6 month point. You should also contact our Seneschal and give her/him a status update. The Seneschal will sign any site contract that is negotiated, so she/he needs to see a copy of the contract before it is finalized.

The autocrat must prepare a budget listing expected costs, site and feast fees needed to cover these costs, monies needed for deposits and rentals, etc. While this may sound intimidating, there is advice available for how to prepare a budget and calculate how much to charge for site and feast fees. The Seneschal will provide you with the budget form so you know what information is required. This form should be submitted 3 months before the date of the event for the signature and approval of both the Seneschal and the Reeve. The Reeve will explain to you how to handle money requests, how to get approval to spend Baronial funds, and how to get reimbursement for expenses.

The autocrat also fills out an event registration form, which will be provided by the Seneschal, for the Kingdom Seneschal's signature. This form should be accompanied by an article, which will be printed in the Kingdom and local newsletters, listing the details of the event. There are guidelines for what should be included in the article. This form and the article should be completed 3 months in advance to meet the publishing deadline of the Kingdom Chronicler. You want your article to appear in the newsletters at least two months prior to your event. The Kingdom newsletter deadline is the 1st day of the month BEFORE the month in which your article will appear. You can see why advance planning is so important.

You should plan to attend the Forum meeting for the three months prior to your event so you can coordinate activities that require the help of an officer, such as fighting which requires the supervision of the Knight Marshal, and keep the officers and Their Excellencies informed of any problems or issues that might come up. You should attend the Forum just after your event to turn in your official report on the event, OR at the very least you need to file a written event report with the local Seneschal and the Kingdom Seneschal within 30 days after your event. The report needs to include what you did, how it went, and what advice you want to pass on to future autocrats about things to keep in mind when using the site (costs...good places to get a deal...and general "If I was going to do this again I would do it this way" advice). Your final report will also need to include a copy of the sign in sheet and your financial information.

That's it, no mystery here. Sure, there are steps to follow the weeks and days just prior to your event to make sure it is successful, details like scrolls and decorations to work out, but these are very straightforward and will be included in the advice provided. We all want our events to be fun, so you can be assured of plenty of good advice and assistance from the officers and the populace.

So you want to be an autocrat...? There are lots of people who are interested in helping you learn and make your event a success. Don't be intimidated, just do it.

can take place. Loch Salann has several traditional events that happen at about the same time each year. These events are: Baronial Defender/Birthday in March, Melee Madness in June, Baroness' Champion/Arts & Sciences in October, and Solstice Court in December. While an event may be traditional, anyone can volunteer to help autocrat it and to decide its general theme, with a few exceptions. Baronial Defender/Birthday is organized by the winners of the tournaments, Baroness' Champion/Arts & Science is organized by the A&S Champion, and Melee Madness is usually hosted by Sir Michael the Lucky. However, anyone can volunteer to co-autocrat these events, volunteer to run feasts, or just generally help out. Solstice Court is open for anyone to autocrat and needs a good feast-ocrat as well.

This leaves 2 events completely open for whatever theme a volunteer might want. We have typically held a Collegium event, and it has been proposed that we make this a joint venture with the Barony of One Thousand Eyes again next year. If they host it, we will need three autocrats (one to coordinate our side of the Collegium), and two event ideas for our non-traditional events next year.

The basic process of getting an event on the calendar is thus:

Our local populace members discuss event ideas and autocrats at an annual meeting and give their approval. Anyone who wants to volunteer to autocrat or to hold their own event should attend this meeting and be prepared to discuss a preferred date, the theme of the event, a summary of the planned activities, whether there will be a feast and who they have to run the feast, if they have a site in mind, etc. This information should be put in writing as well and a copy given to the Seneschal and Their Excellencies. Even if a person only has a historical theme they want to present, but does not want to autocrat, he/she can still present the idea and propose an autocrat for the event. Don't forget, unofficial events should be proposed at this meeting as well... perhaps you want to hold an unofficial household revel... or something laid-back that everyone is invited to...

The Kingdom holds a calendar planning meeting each year, usually at Uprising, and Seneschals from each area present their events and bid for dates on the Kingdom Calendar. Once a consensus is reached, the Kingdom Seneschal and Their Majesties give the final approval for the calendar, any last minute changes or conflicts are worked out, and the schedule is published in the Sage Advice approx. Nov./Dec. Those people who have volunteered to autocrat are then sent a letter by our Seneschal listing the date that was assigned to their event, and a list of due dates.

There is plenty of information available on how to run a successful event, and it will be made available to anyone who volunteers to autocrat (or anyone who is just thinking about doing it). Don't let the fact that you have never run an event before stop you from volunteering. If you follow the advice given, plan well in advance, communicate with your volunteers and the local officers, your event will be a success. Even if you don't think you can run the entire event, you can still volunteer to co-autocrat with someone who has been an autocrat. There is nothing mystical about the process, but you do need to stay on top of things.

Here is the basic timetable and set of requirements for any autocrat to follow:

Unto the Populace of Loch Salann Does Lady Halla Brandsdottir
Send Her Warmest Greetings.

As you know from Defenders, I am your new chronicler. I look forward to serving you for the next two years, and I have many great ideas for the Quill. I am always looking for artwork and articles, so don't be shy about submitting. I'd love to showcase your work. And it's never too early

That Saline-swilling, Daemon Decapodia has once again been vanquished...

Minister of Arts & Sciences Report

Loch Salann Collegium will be held on April 27, 2002. We have some great teachers coming and we need some great students. One area will be devoted to "beginner" type classes throughout the day. If you have always wanted to learn some arts and sciences but didn't know how to get started, this is a day you don't want to miss. In the more advanced areas, we have some of the best artisans both locally and imported coming to share their talents and knowledge. Mark it on your calendar as a day you don't want to miss.

Kingdom Arts & Sciences competition is just around the corner, first Saturday in May to be exact. So put the final polish on your great works and documentation and come on out. A kingdom competition is a great chance to get feedback and advice from people "in the know" from all over the kingdom. Let's have a great turn-out both in entries and audience to show why our barony is justifiably proud of its great artisans. Again, if you need help or advice, feel free to call or email. If I can't help you, I will get you in touch with someone who can

Country Dancing Just for Fun 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM Countess Ealasaid NiChlurain
Lord Kastagir Morgan McLaren, CLC

Students will learn beginning and intermediate English, RSCDS and ceilidh dances, sometimes with live music. We'll show you the easy way to learn all the necessary steps for all kinds of country dancing, do lots of dances and just have fun!

No Children under 15 Cost per student: $1.50 (copying costs)

BEGINNERS:

Intro to the SCA 11:00 AM to Noon Lord Raven MacLeod

As Period as Possible

- A Fabric Primer Noon to 1:00 PM HL Isabeau de Sevyngy
Class is designed for the beginner in our Society, however, any interested are welcome to join. The focus is the selection and purchase of "period" fabrics. We will discuss fiber content, color, burn tests, wrinkle tests and basic weaves. This class is taught informally and hands on. Students will be allowed to pet, drape and play with fabrics provided. They will also do burn tests to gain experience of smoke scents and ash feels of various fabric types. There will also be a discussion of fabric choices and substitutions.

Service Opportunities

If you have ever wanted to volunteer for a Baronial office, but hesitated because you weren't sure what would be expected of you, now is the perfect chance to step up. Several officers are looking for deputies. You can learn more about an office without taking full responsibility for it.

These officers need one or more deputies:

Sheriff Lord Draco de la Rose sheriff@lochsalamn.org

List Minister Lady Isabelle MacLeod list@lochsalamn.org

(volunteers should be able to attend local events and help run tournaments at those events)

Seneschal HE Leah de Spencer seneschal@lochsalamn.org

(we are looking for a second deputy for this office who can attend forum and assist with autocrat coordination)

Hospitaller Lord Raven MacLeod hospitaller@lochsalamn.org

(he is looking for someone who can attend fighter's practice to help answer questions and welcome new people, as well as people who would be willing to provide activities during fighter's practice)

Minister of Arts and Sciences

We are also calling for Letters of Intent for the office of Minister of Arts and Sciences for the Barony. Lady Constance will be stepping down from this office in October. She is requesting that letters of intent be sent no later than July 1, 2002. Please talk to Lady Constance about the office and she can answer all of your questions.

As with regular offices, you need to have a current SCA membership to be a deputy. This is mainly because, in the event of an emergency, you

By Lady Rhianna ingen Cathail

With the upcoming Populace Meeting to plan next year's events, I thought it would be useful to explain the process of bidding for a local event.

As a Barony, we are allowed to have up to 6 official local events per year (and any number of un-official events). An official event is placed on the Kingdom calendar and is an event at which awards can be given and official business

From the Cook's Corner

The Cook's Guild met on the evening of March 5, 2002. It was wonderful to gather at Lordship Vogg's home after our long WAR hiatus. Under the direction of Lordship Vogg; Mistress Casamira, Master Edward, Mistress Margaret, Lordship James, and M'Lord Joseph, prepared the following dishes.

The feast consisted of: Stracciatella alla Fiorentina (Spinach and Egg Soup), Venison with Mushrooms and Onions, Mashed Rutabagas, Green Pancakes (in honor of St. Patrick's Day), and baked Pears with Jam. The dishes were easy to prepare, and quite delicious. After eating our fill, amidst the puns. We decided on the following recipe to share.

Stracciatella alla Fiorentina (Spinach and Egg Soup)

6 cups chicken stock	1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
4 eggs	1 cup packed, thinly shredded spinach leaves

In a large saucepan, bring the stock to a boil and reduce to a brisk simmer. Meanwhile, in a bowl lightly beat the eggs, and then stir in the cheese. While stirring the stock, constantly, drizzle in the egg mixture and then add the spinach. Simmer 2 to 3 minutes more and serve immediately.

Green Pancakes

1 cup blanched spinach	1 cup fine bread crumbs
1 cup light cream	1/8 teaspoon each of ginger and nutmeg
3 eggs	Butter for frying

Parboil the spinach 4 to 5 minutes. Drain and squeeze out excess water with your hand. Put spinach in a blender or food processor, along with all the other ingredients and blend until smooth. If the batter is too thick, thin with a little more cream or milk. Fry in small portions, just like regular pancakes. May be served plain or with jam and/or honey.

The Cook's Guild looks forward to seeing all of you at our meetings. For more information call Lordship Vogg at 260-1939. Our next scheduled meeting will be held April 2, 2002 and will be under the direction of Mistress Casamira. Hope to see you there.
