Populace Meeting

The next Populace Meeting will be held at our Seneschal's home, 2359 E. Cavalier Dr. (7305 S.). This is an open forum meeting with no set agenda other than a few items of business Their Excellencies and our Seneschal wish to address. Please bring any business you want to discuss with Their Excellencies, the Baronial officers or the general Populace to this meeting. Please wear garb to this meeting.

Greetings unto our great Populace.

May joy and warm moments fill the hours until our next affair. Unto those that did participate in the events of Their Majesty's grand Coronation, we give our thanks and warmest wishes. With a congratulations to my champion, Daniel d'Aurelle, for becoming the newest Kingdom Rapier Champion.

In the month to come, we find ourselves with time to relax and reflect on past events. Take care, however, there is more fun to be had. The second weekend of August bodes an event to stir the young in us all. Artemisian Games, in the newly appointed Shire of Dragon's March, proves to be an event regaled by bards for some time. It would be our honor to see so many familiar faces adorn this site. Please, join us.

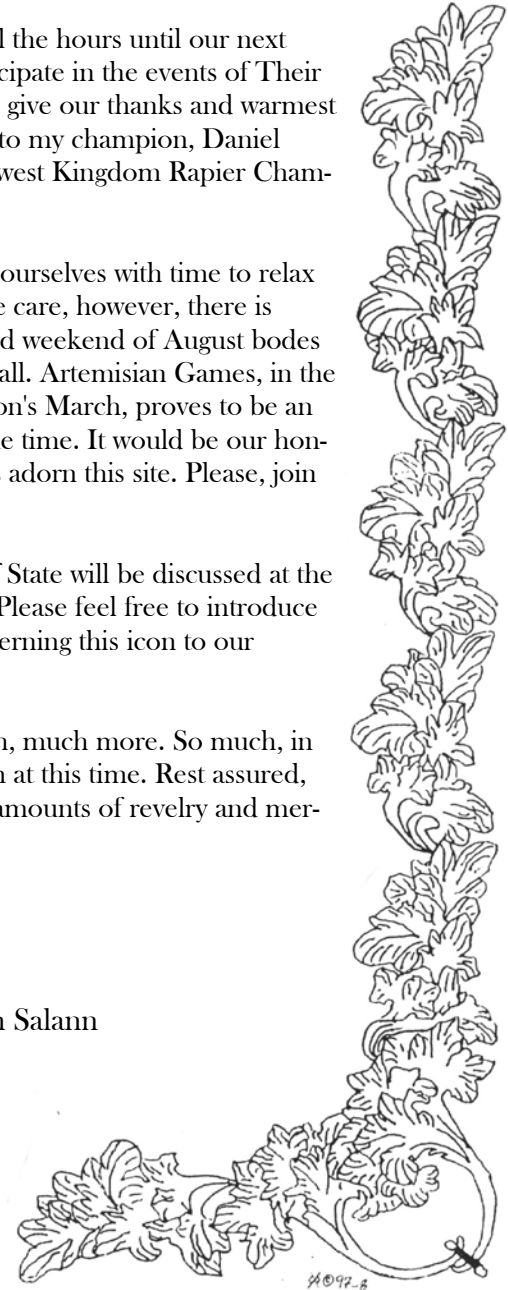

Once again, our great Sword of State will be discussed at the Populace Meeting this month. Please feel free to introduce your ideas and comments concerning this icon to our strength.

The coming months hold much, much more. So much, in fact, that I will not include them at this time. Rest assured, however, there will be endless amounts of revelry and merriment. Until then...

Humbly,

Timmur and Tianna

Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann

Seneschal's Letter:

*Unto the populace of Loch Salann
Mistress Leah de Spencer does send Greetings,*

I have been given the honor to be named the new seneschal for our Barony. Since some of you may not know who I am, I thought I'd tell you a little about myself. I was first introduced to the SCA by Mst. Ferelith, when she returned from Germany where she was stationed in the Army—since at that time there was no SCA in Utah (or in this part of the country). I was asked to be Hospitaller at my first event, and served in a number of offices: Baronial, Principality, and Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences, Baroness for 8 yrs. (not really an office), Local Knight Marshall as well, Principality Seneschal to name a few.

On the mundane side, I teach school at Creekside Alternative High School in Murray Dist. I am a Senior Master Sergeant in the Air Force Reserve, and it is my belief that the training I have received in both of these areas will add to my ability to serve YOU.

I want to extend a personal invitation to you to come to the Populace Meeting, which will be held at Holdtite on 21 August at 7:00 PM. Holdtite is located at 2359 East on Cavalier Drive (7305 South), and if you need more specific directions just call (801) 942-3391. I am looking forward to meeting you in this new official capacity. If you have any comments or advice to give, please feel free. My e-mail address is listed in this Quill and as soon as school starts, I'll get the school address added.

In joyful anticipation of Service to YOU

I remain

Mistress Leah de Spencer

Seneschal Loch Salann

Congratulations

To Sir Gregory de Bec who is our new Kingdom Seneschal. You can find contact information for him (for those letters of intent you are all going to write...) on the Kingdom web site.

Minister of Arts & Sciences Report

Baronial Arts and Sciences competition is October 20, 2001. Are you already working on your entries??? If you need any help, advice, or referrals to those who know your area, give me a call. Full details on the competition as well as entry forms will be in next months newsletter and available at fighter practices starting August 15. Pre-registration of entries is required. Deadline for research paper entries will be September 19, 2001. Pre-registration deadline for all other entries will be October 10, 2001.

Also, I am (already) starting to look for judges for that competition. Remember that the best way to have good judges is to volunteer to be a good judge. So call me to volunteer today.

Richard I, the Lion-Hearted

(part three in a continuing genealogy of the Plantagenets)

By Fiona the Norseman's Daughter

Richard followed his father on the throne on 3 September 1189, having out-survived his two older brothers. He wasted no time grieving his father. The two had been openly in arms at Henry's death. Despite his contentions with his father, Richard's favor fell on those who had loyally supported Henry, even against him. Among these was William the Marshal, who had held the rearguard against Richard when Henry had fled Le Mans. William had had Richard at his mercy at the time but had killed only his horse. "I will not slay you," the Marshal had said "The Devil may slay you!" Richard rose above the grave insult; he confirmed The Marshal in his offices and lands and saw him married to Isabel de Clare, heiress of Pembroke, making The Marshal one of his most powerful barons.

Richard was tall and strong; he rejoiced in personal combat. He was no politician. Churchill says his alliances were formed upon his likes and dislikes. He was much more interested in going on Crusade than he was in ruling either his Kingdom in England or duchies in France that came to him via his mother, Eleanor of Aquitaine. Soon after he came to the throne, he set about raising funds for what would be the Third Crusade. This Crusade was marred by the quarrels of the allies involved in it. Philip Augustus of France, one of them, left the Holy Land and returned home to his own intrigues, including conspiring with Prince John against absent Richard. Richard personally insulted Duke Leopold of Austria, who headed for home. Richard's army, despite his able leadership, was unable to take Jerusalem, though it was within their sight.

By 1192, the news from England was so bad that Richard knew he had to return home. A treaty was reached with Salladin that opened the Holy Sepulcher to pilgrimage. Richard had to be content with that. Richard left for home sought to make his way through Germany in disguise but was taken prisoner by Duke Leopold, then imprisoned by the Holy Roman Emperor, Henry VI. A ransom of 150,000 marks was demanded, an amount the represented twice the annual revenue of the English crown. Behind Richard's back, his brother John and Philip Augustus of France offered the Emperor 80,000 marks to keep Richard under lock and key

TO ALL MEMBERS WITH FRUIT TREES
OR GARDENS

Do your trees have more fruit than you can eat? Is your garden producing extra vegetables or herbs this year?

As the feast steward for Solstice this year, I would like to prepare as much of the feast as possible from the Bounty of the Barony. This will also help us to keep the feast cost low for all while also giving us the best in foodstuffs to eat. So if you have extra production give me a call and I will come pick it up. I have a large freezer and plenty of ways to preserve whatever you have. I will even come pick and harvest the extra if you like.

Any foodstuffs not used in the feast will be taken to the food bank or to the Women & Children's Shelter. We did this with the leftovers from Coronation and they were amazed and appreciative of the generosity of the SCA. They said the party they had and the abundance of food produced the first real children's smiles they had ever seen in that house.

If you don't have a garden but would still like to help with this project by volunteering to help harvest and preserve, give me a call and I will let you know when there is a need for such volunteers.

Thank-you

From the Cook's Corner

July 10, 2001 was the evening of the Baronial Cook's Guild Meeting. We met at Lordship Vogg's abode to prepare and partake of a sumptuous Polish feast, under the direction of Mistress Casamira. These two good gentiles were aided in their efforts by Mistress Margaret and Master Edward Mendeith.

The recipes were all quite simple and easy to prepare. We had Lemon Soup, Brigands' Pot Roast, Lazy Dumplings, Plum Dumplings, and Pierogi with Cherries. After much good humor and companionship we sat down to eat and chose the following recipe to share.

Lemon Soup

2 egg yolks
1 Tablespoon flour
2/3 cup sour cream
6 cups chicken stock
Grated rind from 1 small to medium lemon
Juice of same lemon

Beat raw egg yolks and flour into sour cream until thoroughly smooth. Slowly add hot, strained stock, being careful not to let liquid curdle. Add lemon rind. Since tastes differ, add lemon juice a little at a time, or soup may turn out to be too tart. Heat thoroughly on very low heat. Serve with croutons or hot boiled rice. Makes 6 to 7 servings.

Cook's Guild meets on the first Tuesday of each month and welcome any who wish to attend. Our next meeting will be held on August 7, 2001. For more information contact Master Edward at (801)571-3678 or Lordship Vogg at (801)260-1939. We hope to see everyone there.

Happy Eating,

until Michaelmas 1194 or 150,000 marks to deliver him into their hands. The Emperor held to his bargain with Richard, however. The staggering ransom had to be raised; both church and lay lands bore the burden equally. Prince John set an example in collecting these taxes—but kept the proceeds for himself. Three attempts were made to raise the ransom; the entire amount could not be found, though England and Normandy were taxed to their limits. The Emperor realized he could not get more. On payment of the first installment, he freed Richard in February 1194.

Richard returned to England, where, of course, John had already declared him dead and had himself crowned king. He was in open rebellion when Richard returned. John fled to France. Richard was recrowned in London. Now at war with Philip Augustus of France, Richard stayed in England only long enough to raise money and gather knights. After he managed this, he left England to defend his French possessions and never returned.

John asked for and received Richard's pardon, despite the knowledge John would have left him in the hands of Henry VI. Richard restored estates to John, though not those fortresses that John could man against him. The rest of Richard's reign was spent defending his French possession, raising the money to do so in England. He died 6 April 1199 of gangrene from an arrow wound received during siege of a small castle, leaving his crown to John.

Most sources indicate that Richard and Berengaria had no children—indeed, they barely had time to have any, as they married on 12 May 1191, at Limassol, Cyprus, while Richard was on crusade and may not have consummated the marriage until 1195. One source (Tompsett, Brian, University of Hull, UK, website: www.dcs.hull.ac.uk/public/genealogy) shows a son, Philip, from the marriage; Family Search shows Philip as the son of a mistress. Tompsett also shows Fulk as the speculative offspring of Richard and Joan de St. Pol. It is certain, however, that Richard left no legitimate heir and few illegitimate possibilities.

Don't Forget!

Utah State Fair Demo, September, 9. Lady Morag The Wanderer is signing up volunteers to spend a couple of hours at our booth helping with this demo. We are doing this on our own behalf rather than at the request of another group/organization. This is an opportunity to really shine and let people know who we are and what we do. If you can come and help bring the dream to others, please contact Lady Morag, ASAP. She needs your commitment no later than the Populace Meeting so she can arrange for tickets.
