Unto the Populous of Loch Salann do we send fond greetings.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many who laboured to make Baronial Arts and Sciences the wonderful event that it was. We give great thanks to Lady Constance de la Rose, whose work as autocrat made this event possible. We would also like to thank all those who competed in the Arts and Sciences competition, as well as the Baroness' Champion tourneys. Congratulations to Draco de la Rose, our new A&S champion, as well as to the Baroness' new champions, Lord Yuri the Yakslapper and Daniel D'Aurette. Our court is enriched by their presence. Congratulations also to Lady Albreda, our newest Lark.

We also welcome three new Baronial officers into our service. Constance de la Rose is our new Arts and Sciences Minister, Maeve O'Dempsey is our List Minister, and Mara von Turlin is our Herald. We look forward to working with them.

Their Artemisian Majesties have asked and authorized us to announce the following:

The lands heretofore known as the Canton of Arrow's Flight are Crown Lands, under the jurisdiction of no local branch.

The Toys for Tots event, scheduled for November 4, 2000 will go forward as announced and scheduled.

An objective polling, which will include the entire populace of the affected lands, will be conducted. This polling will include all options for the future course of the affected lands-- remaining Crown Lands, or going forward as a Shire, a College, a Canton of Loch Salann, or Baronial Lands of Loch Salann.

Questions may be directed to the Kingdom Senechal, Mistress Courtney, and Mistress Rachel, the Deputy Seneschal for New Branch Development. We encourage all involved to be fully informed and educated as to the options available.

Niccolo,
Baron

Elyn,
Baroness

Greetings Unto the Populous of Loch Salann

Lady Megan of Clan Sutherland sends greetings.

First of all I would like to Thank those gentles that submitted a letter of intent for the Office of Herald, List Minister and MOAS. The announcement of who will be filling these Officer Positions was made in Closing Court at the A&S event this weekend.

Our New MOAS is Constance de la Rose
Our New List Minister is Maeve O Dempsey
And our New Herald is Mara von Turlin

I am so pleased that we have three new officers to provide us with new ideas and enthusiasm. Please give them your support.

We are still looking for a new Sheriff and rapier marshal. I have heard that there are those of you interested in becoming more involved, please let us know who you are.

I would like to say how much I enjoyed the A&S event this past weekend. The entire day was spent enjoying the sights and sounds of a truly fine competition. From the fighting to the Entries in the A&S. I was very glad to see so many entries in the Performing Arts categories and would like to say Thanks to All. I feel that the hotel out did themselves in the hospitality shown to us while we were there.

They did go above and beyond.

The meal was a show in itself. Thank You Constance de la Rose.

Toys for Tots—Thankful Hearts, Giving Hands

November 4, 2000 American Fork, Utah

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Good gentles of the fair lands of Artemisia. 'Tis the time of year to remember all that has been graciously given unto us and to give thanks. We now present a wonderful opportunity to do so. Come join us in our quest to gather Christmas toys for the wee ones and food for those that hunger. 'Tis also a great time to come fight (heavy & rapier), eat (exquisite feast), make merry and more.

In the tradition of period ransom tourneys, all Combatants wishing to enter into the list will receive 5 tokens for a donation of 1 unwrapped new toy. The field will be open for challenges in all authorized weapon forms. Should a combatant run out of tokens during the course of battles, 5 additional tokens may be claimed at the list table by paying your ransom of another new, unwrapped toy. (Wal-Mart & K-Mart are close by) Non-combatants are encouraged to participate and may sponsor fighters onto the field by paying their ransom of 1 new, unwrapped toy for 5 tokens. Non-combatants may also donate toys in exchange for tokens which they may award to fighters as they feel fit for great deeds on and off the field. The combatant that has gained the most ransoms for the day shall be deemed the winner of the Ransom Tourney. All toys shall be donated to the USMC's Toys for Tots program to be distributed to those less fortunate than ourselves.

For those who prefer fighting in a different style, there will also be a Rapier's Tourney as well. Combatants' fee is the same as the heavy weapons fighter. Encourage your consort to bring a toy or toys also and receive coins with which to reward you with.

A Bag Raffle will also take place. Each contributor will receive four free tickets. Tickets will be 4/$1, so bring lots of coins and a big heart. Items for the Bag Raffle can include "services provided." Services could be armoring, sewing, dance lessons, being a servant, whatever. Be creative, it's for a good cause.

A delicious period feast will be served. The feast fee is $5 ($2.50 for children 6-12, free under 6.) The feast cap will be at 100. Feast reservations must be made by November 4th. Please make reservations by calling m'lady Tammy at (801) 371-9280. Please make checks out to Canton of Arrows' Flight, SCA Inc.

The site is the American Fork Senior's Center, 54 E Main, American Fork, Ut. From Salt Lake take I-15 to exit 281. Turn left onto Main Street, going over the freeway overpass. Go just past second stop light (Center Street.). The Senior's Center will be on the right (south) side, right next to Robinson Park. From Provo take I-15 to exit 279 which turns onto 500 E. Go to the first stoplight and turn left. Follow the road for about 4 blocks. At the stoplight at 100 E, the site will be on the upper, left-hand corner area next to the park. It's a brick building. Parking is around the park, behind the site, and on the west side of the building complex. The site is DRY and no pets are allowed. Site fee: $5 (non-member) $3 (member) Half price 6-12, under 6 free; plus one non-perishable food item for the local food bank. ## Greetings noble populous of Loch Salann

Just a couple of reminder about the winter fighter practice site: If you can manage it, please wear footwear with non-marking soles. The clean-up time for me after fighter practice has gone down to almost nothing, thanks to the fighters wearing non-marking soles, and I would love to keep it that way. Please please please either be very very careful when moving tables, or leave it to me. Two tables have had damage done to their hinges since we started at the school, and caused by us or not, if it happens again we will probably lose the site.

November is when intramural basketball starts at the school. Expect to have a much harder time finding parking. Also, we need to be aware that there will be bunches of rowdy kids (and sometimes rowdier parents according to the janitors) in near proximity to us. We need to set an example of courtesy and consideration.

I am looking to put together a complete set of loaner hardsuit armor. If anyone has excess armor pieces that they are willing to loan or donate to the barony for this purpose, I would greatly appreciate it. Unassembled armor pieces, or pieces in poor repair will also be acceptable as I am somewhat proficient in assembly and repair of armor. Loaner armor will be for on-site use only, and only during fighter practices.

Yours in service, Christoph von Lubbeke

Chancellor of the Exchequer

Humble greetings unto you, the great populace of Loch Salann!

I am sending out a cry for a Deputy Exchequer! Come and join me in learning all about how the Barony Finances work and help run the site and feast check-ins at events. This is a GREAT way to meet your fellow SCA members and put a name with all those faces! Any one interested in being my deputy may contact me directly. All my contact information is listed in this (and every) issue of the Quill as well as in the Baronial Directory.

I also want to thank all of the populace who sent in their pre-registrations and payments for the Baronial A & S Event. As you know we as a populace agreed at our last Populace Meeting that ALL feast would now be pre-paid so as to help relieve some of the waste and last minute stress for our Feast/Auto-crats at our Baronial events. I feel this worked out quiet well for our first event since this decision was made. I look forward to receiving all of your Solstice Feast reservations soon (see Solstice Notice in this issue for due date) Remember to sign up earlier as the feast-o-crat is HL Morwenna Oriana yum-yum :) !

In Your Service....

Lady Morag "The Wanderer"

PS: Yes, I am in the process of changing my playing name!

From the Chronicler:

Just a quick note of THANKS to those of you who helped out with the special Arts & Sciences issue last month. One deadline down, one to go... I am starting to compile artwork for the Baronial 2001 calendar now. The calendar will be distributed at Solstice Court, so there's not much time until it needs to be completed. If you have pictures of any of Loch Salann's Barons and Baronesses, particularly in court or sitting together, I would love to borrow them. Please contact me if you have photos you are willing to share. Border artwork or extra illustrations would be welcomed as well.

As always, feedback, commentary, suggestions, and contributions are always welcome and sought after.

In Service, Lady Rhianna MacGregor

Arts and Sciences Report

Greetings dear populace!

This is my last report as A&S mistress and I'm happy to report LOTS! The Baronial A&S competition was a great success due to all the fine works entered and all the tremendous help and assistance from many fine gentry. Draco de la Rose is our new A&S champion (keeping it in the family, eh?) and well deserved with Lady Rowena, Lady Cate and Lady Bronwyn following close behind in the Champion category. We had 12 total entrants with 47 entrees. Vivat to all of you and your excellent work. Our Populace Choice award went to Lady Bronwyn (again, well deserved!). I'd like to mention that the Loch Salann musicians made a very fine showing this year (gee, can you tell I'm proud of them?).

I couldn't have done my job this year without the help of many individuals but one in particular, Lady Heloise, for all her tremendous help in every area. VIVAT!!!! I'm leaving my position in most capable hands as Lady Constance de la Rose takes over the reins of A&S mistress. I know you will all support her and assist her as much as you've supported me and that she will make a superb beacon for the Arts and Sciences in our Barony.

I would lastly like to thank everyone in the Barony for all the love and support, kindness and assistance you've given to me these past two years. It's been a wonderful opportunity to appreciate all the incredible talent in our Barony firsthand.

Yours in Service to the Dream,

Baroness Mary Amanda

(just call me the little "p", matie!)

Annual Iron Balls Tourney

November 4, 2000      Filer, ID Shire Twae Linnes

(from web site): Hey, did you hear? The Shire of Twae Linnes is throwing it's Annual Iron Balls Tourney!! What is the Iron Balls Tourney? Well it is a tourney held each year in November out in the snow. Those rugged fighters battle it out to see who has the most "stamina" for that cold northern fighting.

What would you do if you didn't like the cold and can't bring yourself to watch it? It is also their shire Arts & Science Competition Anyone can compete but only a member of Twae Linnes can be the Champion. Dig out those projects you have put aside since last spring and get them ready to enter into the competition. The rules will be those of the Kingdom and all categories are welcome. A special challenge has been given to the populace by the A & S minister for the dessert category in cooking. All desserts need to have portions not only for the judging but enough to serve approximately 8-10 people, we wish to use them in the last remove of the feast!!!

Pre-registration of competition entries is highly encouraged. Contact the MOAS for more details on this.

There will also be a rather unique fundraiser going on all day. We will have our sheriff taking "prisoners" er We mean "guest reservation" Anyone can have someone else spend some time in the company of our fine sheriff! For a mere pittance ($3) you can have someone spend some time in our finest "accommodations" Of course they will need to pay a fee to be removed from those "accommodations" ($5). Do you know someone who needs a "rest" from the hectic pace of life? Do them a favor and pay their way for that "lovely rest".

After all fun and friendly competition our hearts and bellies will be warmed by a wonderful sit down feast. With dessert provided by the competitors of the A & S Competition.

The site of all this fun is the American Legion Hall in Filer, Idaho. November 4th. The site opens at 9:00 AM and closes at Midnight. Site fee is $4.00; feast fee is $6.00 (6-16 is half price, under 6 is free). Paid feast reservations are due to by the 22nd of October, paid to the Shire of Twae Linnes SCA Inc. and sent to the Autocrat. The feast is limited to 100 people so make your reservations early.

From the Cook's Corner

On the evening of October 3, 2000, The members of the Loch Salann Cook's Guild met at the home of Lady Constance de La Rose. Joining us were the Manager and the Chef of the airport Holiday Inn who had come to learn how to cook medievally, as they are preparing the feast for Arts and Sciences.

The dishes that we prepared were: Leek and Onion Soup, Roo Broth (Venison Stew), Barley Pilaff, Brussels Sprouts, and Apple Fritters with Vanilla Ice Cream and Boozenberries. All of the dishes that were prepared, with the exception of the Roo Broth, will be served at the event .

Our visitors seemed to enjoy themselves and even joined in the puns. After much revelry, we chose the following recipe to share.

Roo Broth (Venison Stew)

2 1/2 pounds venison stew meat, cut into chunks (stew meat may be used)
2 cups red wine
1/2 cup red wine vinegar
1/2 cup olive oil
2-3 onions, coarsely chopped
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme or more if fresh
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
1/4 teaspoon ground mace or 4 blades mace tied in cheesecloth
2-4 tablespoons lard or olive oil
2-3 slices whole wheat bread
1 1/2 cup water
3/4 cup currants
1/4 cup chopped parsley

If venison (or beef) has been frozen, thaw, save the meat juices that accumulate. To Marinate meat, mix wine, vinegar, olive oil, onions, and seasonings (except parsley) and pour this mixture over meat in pan. Cover and leave in the refrigerator for a day or two, then remove meat from marinade with a slotted spoon and dry on towels. Strain some marinade over the bread in a blender or food processor jar and leave to soak while you brown the meat in fat or oil. As the brown, remove the pieces to a stew pot. When all are browned, blend the soaked bread and add it to the pot along with the water (with which you have rinsed the browning pan), the marinade, and any blood or meat juices left after thawing; bring to a boil, then lower heat and simmer 1 hour. Then---or when reheating---add the currants and parsley, and cook for 30 minutes more. Taste for seasoning. You may wish to add salt, pepper, cinnamon, and/or vinegar. Serve.

The Cook's Guild welcomes all who wish to join us to partake in good food and good fun. Our next scheduled meeting is November 7, 2000, and will be held at Lordship Vogg's home. The meal is under the direction of Mistress Casamira. For more information or directions, contact Master Edward at 571-3678 or Lordship Vogg at 260-1939. We hope to see everyone there.

Happy Eating,
The Cook's Guild
