congratulations!

to Their Highnesses Reinmar Wolfmeier and Albreda Wolfkeeper, from the Shire of Twae Linnes, for victory at our most recent Crown Tournament held in the Shire of Dragonmarch. A fine and festive day was enjoyed by all who attended.

Greetings unto all from their Excellencies of Loch Salann,

October held two of the most spectacular events I have seen in quite sometime. Crown Tournament was aglow with delight and merriment as banners of every color and splendor decorated a magnificent tournament. Twenty two fighters took to the field in a bash of armor and weaponry with only one to win the day. We extend our warmest thoughts and heartfelt congratulations to The Royal Highnesses Rheinmar Wolfmeier and Albreda the Wolfkeeper. Our thanks be also extended to our most gracious hosts of the Shire of Dragonmarch. A spectacular event, well greeted by all. Well done.

The following weekend was no less fanciful and awesome with Baroness' Champion. Where comers from all over the Kingdom did vie for the honor of protecting the Baroness. In the most honourable tournaments one has ever witnessed, Lord Daman MacMillan of the Shire of Bronzehelm took the day in armored combat, whilst Adric Lagot joined the ranks in rapier combat. Lady Edana MacDonald bested the Arts and Sciences field with her divine works and displays. A hearty congratulations and sincere thanks to all that participated. Moreso, however, are those that contributed behind the scenes. Our judges, our tally keepers, our helpers and our saviors. The Society is blessed by you all. Thank you. You made the day something to be told in tales for years to come.

In the coming months; however, we regale ourselves in even more delight as we have Toys for Tots, Leftovers Tourney and the ever magnificent Solstice Ball. All filled with merriment and delight, and expected to be very well attended by populous the Kingdom wide. Solstice is to be held on December 8th, as a masked ball. I delight in the thought of the creativity to be displayed on the attendees as dancing, feasting and friendships come aglow in the night. Won't you join us for the Grand Solstice Court?

Our journey's will also be taking us outside the borders of our realms in the coming months, to offer friendship to the outlying Kingdoms of Caid and the Outlands as they welcome a new King and Queen, each. We would love to travel with anyone interested. Consider the open invitation, I look forward to hearing from all curious and intent.

Be well favored populous. You are in our hearts.

Jimmie Tolana

General Announcements:

 Archers: Archery practices to be held by Michael the Loud by appointment. If you are interested, contact him at hamberg@fiber.net, or at 412-0631.

 Fighters: Sir Ronan of Hereford will be holding some training classes for those fighters who would like to work on fighting techniques, or the populace who wish to observe and participate in the discussion portion. These will be in addition to regular fighter's practice. The first class will be held Oct. 28th, at 1:00 p.m. in Sugarhouse Park/Lake Terrace. Until a permanent site is located, each new class day/time/location will be announced separately. The next class will be Sunday, Nov. 18th at 1:00 at the Gryphon's Lair practice site (location to be announced) Please contact Sir Ronan (hereford@xmission.com) if you have any questions or would like to be on his mailing list for class date/time updates.

 We are currently in the process of building a team to take on the various tasks of Hospitaller for our Barony. We've done several demos lately and have a lot of renewed interest from potential new members. With so much activity going on, we want a team of people who can share the responsibility of mentoring new members, organizing demos, and contacting the media as needed. However, we need this team NOW, when there are so many new people who could use a hand in getting started in the SCA. Please submit a letter of intent to our Seneschal and Their Excellencies if you are willing to serve in this capacity. In your letter, list your strengths, interests and those things you feel you would not do well. This will help us pick a team of people that compliment each other.

 We'd like to thank Maeve O'Dempsey for her tenure as List Minister. She has moved to Gryphon's Lair, and so it is time to call for another person to replace her as List Minister. This is a fun position with a great view of the tournaments held in our area. There are several people who can teach you how to do this job, so no experience is necessary. Please send a letter of intent to the Seneschal, Knight Marshal and Their Excellencies no later than February 2002.

 Our Herald, Mara von Turlin, has also stepped down from her position. We thank her for her time as our Herald, and ask now for any who would step forward and take her place. Letters of intent should be submitted no later than November 20th. As well as the Seneschal and Their Excellencies, please also send a copy of your letter to the Kingdom Herald, Mistress Shauna.

encouraged to do so. In addition, to help our mighty Kingdom prepare for Estrella (WAR!), a Kingdom War Practice, for both rapier and armored fighters, will be held at Alameda Park in Pocatello at noon, Sunday, November 11. A Knight's Fighting Seminar is also possible for Sunday morning. There will also be a Kingdom Fundraiser, format TBD. Details will follow as they are finalized.

Planned Event Schedule:

9 AM	Site opens
10 AM - 5 PM	Classes and Laurel's Display
5 PM - 7 PM	Dinner break
7:30 PM	Court
9 PM	Artemisian Ball
11 PM	Site closes

The site is the Holiday Inn Pocatello, 1339 Pocatello Bench Road, Pocatello, Idaho, (208) 237-1400. The site is wet; however, because of state laws, all alcohol (other than that required for classes) must be purchased on site. Pets are not allowed, and smokers are requested to not smoke in the hotel lobby or ballroom. A block of discounted rooms ($68/night, up to 4 people per room) has been reserved; mention "SCA" when making reservations. Reservations made after October 26 will not receive the discounted room rate, so reserve early! The hotel has a restaurant, lounge, and indoor swimming pool.

Site fee: $10 (non-members), $8 members, $5 children under 12, children under 5 free. Make checks payable to Barony of 1000 Eyes, SCA, Inc. No feast is scheduled; however, there is a lengthy dinner break, and a list of local restaurants will be included in the event information package. There is also space for merchants; please contact the event stewards for details.

Kingdom Collegium

Saturday, November 10, 2001

Pocatello, ID

Their Royal Majesties, Konrad and Kortland, do invite one and all to participate in their annual Arts and Sciences Collegium, to be held in the Barony of 1000 Eyes. Many wondrous classes are planned, with the artisans of our glorious kingdom sharing their knowledge and experience with all whom are willing to learn! A Laurel's Display is also planned for the day, and all Masters and Mistresses of the Laurel are invited and encouraged to bring their works (or works in progress!) for the populace to view. A Grand Artemisian Ball is planned for the evening, after court, so bring your finest garb and dancing shoes, too!

Those who wish to teach classes, please contact Dame Varia Goffe, Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences, as soon as possible to make arrangements. Brewing classes are permitted; cooking demonstrations are allowed, with approved equipment (no open flames, please.) If AV equipment is needed, please note this, and arrangements will be made.

So those who practice the Arts and Sciences related to War do not feel neglected, there will be also be a War Sciences track in this Collegium. Those who wish to teach classes on armoring, tactics and strategy, or other related topics, are highly

From the Chronicler:

Greetings Loch Salamn.

I am working on a couple of projects and could use your good assistance. First, I will be finalizing a revision of the Baronial Directory. This revised directory will be handed out at Solstice and will also become part of the overall Kingdom Directory. If you have not already done so, please contact me with updated information if yours is out of date. I will be accepting updates until November 1st, after which the information will be printed as it appeared last year. You can send me email at chronicler@lochsalamn.org, or call me at 483-2568.

Second, I am working on the calendar given out by Their Excellencies as a gift to the Populace at Solstice. Each month will feature artwork from a different artist. I am still looking for artists who are willing to contribute to this effort. Please contact me right away if you can help.

I recently learned the results of the Master William Blackfox Awards. These are a Society-wide award to recognize excellence in work by SCA chroniclers and contributors. While none of the newsletters from Artemisia won, there were 11 nominations made from Artemisia. The Questing Quill was nominated twice, once for Best Special Issue (October 2000, A&S), and once for Best Artwork (Dec. 2000, cover). Congratulations to Sir Gerald fitzGerald, who created the December cover as well as the cover art for the Special A&S Issue. Congratulations too to those writers and artists who contributed to the Special Issue. You are all winners in my book and have my heartfelt gratitude. The full results and list of nominations will be in the Fall issue of Tournaments Illuminated.

In Service, Lady Rhianna ingen Cathail

Toys for Tots

Thankful Hearts --- Giving Hands November 3, 2001 American Fork, UT

In the tradition of period ransom tourneys, all Combatants wishing to enter into the list will receive 5 tokens for a donation of 1 unwrapped new toy. Non-combatants may also donate toys in exchange for tokens which they may use to sponsor a fighter, award fighters for great deeds or even lay a wager or two.

A bag raffle shall also take place. Each contributor of items shall receive four free tickets. Tickets will be 4/$1.00 so bring lots of coins and a big heart. All funds will go towards Toys for Tots and the food bank. Artisans, bring your wonderful Arts and Science projects for a Populace Choice competition. Entry fee is one non-perishable food item. The entry fee for the Gaming competition is the same. (Albertson's is across the street.)

A delicious period feast shall be served in the early evening hours. The feast fee is $5.00 for adults ($2.50 for children 6 - 12, free 5 and under) Feast reservations accepted until October 27th, contact Mistress Rebecca, 801 356-1912 or Baroness Rachel. Please make out checks to College of Arrows' Flight, SCA Inc. After feast, there will be dancing to round out the evening.

The site is the American Fork Senior's Center, 54 E Main, American fork, UT. Parking is around the park, behind the site, and on the west side of the building complex. The site is DRY and no pets are allowed.

Site Fee $3.00, children 12 & under free; plus one non-perishable item per person for the local food bank. (Albertsons and Smiths close by.) Make checks payable to College of Arrows' Flight, SCA Inc. The Site opens at 9 am for setup and 10 am for the populace and will close at 10 pm.

Loch Salann Solstice Court

December 8, 2001

Salt Lake City, UT

The Solstice is upon us...the longest night and the shortest day of the year. A time for celebrating the new season ahead and giving thanks for the bounties we have received.

Their Excellencies Baron Timmur Ana Mihn Ramel and Baroness Tian-na NiCoimin welcome your company in this great gathering to observe the Solstice and celebrate the Yuletide.

To mark the season the main activity of the day will be a Masked Ball and feast. All participants are invited to come 'en Masque'. Upon arrival at the celebration you may enter your masque for judging. Before the dancing begins you will have ample time to retrieve your masque and don it for the opening dance. Feasting and court will be intermingled with the dancing throughout the day.

To add to the festive atmosphere, table decorations emphasizing period themes for the celebration of the Solstice and Yule seasons are welcome. Prizes for the table decorations will be given.

Paid reservations must be received by December 1, 2001. Please make your reservation by calling or e-mailing the event autocrat. Please make payments payable to "The Barony of Loch Salann, SCA, Inc." Payments should be delivered to the autocrat by the specified deadline.

Site Fee is $7.00 for members ($9.00 for non-members). Children 6 - 14 $3.50. (Children under 6 no fee). The fee includes feasting.

Site opens at 1:00 p.m. and closes at midnight. This is a dry site. Please do not bring any alcoholic beverages onto the premises.

Tentative Schedule of events:

1:00 - 2:00 Arrival, table decoration setup, mask judging

2:00 - 4:00 Children's activities—Mask making and small Masqued Ball

2:00 - 3:00 Masque and table setting judging

3:00 -- midnight Dancing, feasting, court, more dancing, more feasting, more court, etc.

The site is the Jordan School District Auxiliary Services building at 9150

From the Cook's Corner

The evening of October 2, 2001, found the members of the Baronial Cook's Guild congregating at the home of Lady Constance de La Rose. We were there to help her try out and perfect the recipes she will be using as one of the courses at the upcoming Solstice feast this December. Mistress Casamira, Lordship Vogg, and Lady Constance were eager to get started. At this meeting we welcomed Ladyship Isabeau and Lady Gaudon, as it was their first meeting. Master Edward arrived just in time to help cook the meat, after being at school, and Mistress Margaret came shortly there after, after finishing her time as an election judge.

The foods that we prepared were of distinct Middle Eastern flavor. We dined on Sekanjabin (a wonderful drink), Hummus, Tandoori Naan (a flat bread), Lahm Mishwi (Lamb Shish Kebab), Kafta bi'l-Karaz (Grilled Lamb and Cherry Shish Kabob), Tandoori Chicken, Eggplant Casserole, Mujadarra (a Lentil and Rice dish), and Baklava.

After eating our fill, (and remarking how well the populace will eat at Solstice) we chose the following recipes to share. The first was our favorite, as well as a favorite of our beloved Baroness, Tianna. The second was just too good to be left out.

Tandoori Chicken

6-8 chicken thighs or quarters, skinned	1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
16 ounces plain yogurt	1/2 teaspoon salt
1 Tablespoon ground cumin	2 teaspoons paprika
2 teaspoons ground black pepper	2 cloves garlic, ground
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon	2 teaspoons ground ginger root

Slash the chicken deeply in several places with a small knife; place in a shallow baking dish; set aside. In a small bowl, combine the yogurt and all spices. Pour mixture over chicken, massaging it into the scores and insuring that all areas are covered. Cover the dish with chicken in it and chill 2 to 6 hours. To Bake : Preheat oven to 400 degrees and place chicken in a foil lined pan, in a single layer. Bake for 40 to 50 minutes or until chicken is tender, Change control to broil and broil 5 minutes until golden. To Grill : Place chicken in a covered grill and cook 25 to 30 minutes, turning occasionally until done.

Mujadarra (Lentils and Rice)

2 cups large brown lentils, soaked if required	Oil
Salt and Pepper	1 cup long grain rice, washed
2 onions, sliced into half moon shapes

Boil lentils in a fresh portion of water to cover for 45 to 90 minutes or until tender. Add rice, together with enough water to make the liquid in the pan 2 cups. Season and simmer gently, covered for about 20 minutes until the rice becomes soft and well cooked, adding a little more water if it becomes absorbed too quickly. Fry the sliced onions in 2 tablespoons very hot oil until they are dark brown, and sweet, almost caramelized. Serve the rice and lentils on a large shallow dish, garnished with the fried onion slices.

The Cook's Guild welcomes any and all who want to come. We usually meet the first Tuesday of each month. Our next meeting will be held on November 6, 2001. It will be under the direction of Mistress Casamira. For more information please contact Master Edward at (801) 571-3678 or Lordship Vogg at (801) 260-1939. We hope to see you there.

Happy Eating, The Cook's Guild

Minister of Arts & Sciences Report

Baronial Arts and Sciences competition was held on October 20, 2001. Results of that competition are as follows:

14 individuals entered projects, 3 competing for Champion, 1 for youth champion.

7 were entering their first competition, 5 have been members less than a year. 42 actual projects entered, 23 of which were judged to be Masterpieces.

52 different people judged during the day, 37 of whom had never judged before. All entrants and judges enjoyed the competition and said that they would do it again.

All except 2 judging sheets had commentary (208 sheets with commentary) which was helpful and in many cases quite in-depth. There were no negative comments without advice on improvement.

Final Results:

Champion:	Edana Lioness MacDonald
Youth Champion:	Nicole of Gryphons Lair
Baroness Choice:	Goudin of Berasmere
Baron Choice:	Nicole of Gryphons Lair
Populace Choice:	Carol of Stargate
Lady of Alchemy:	Morag The Wanderer
