From the Chronicler:

A reminder that the special A&S issue will be distributed next month at the Baroness' Champion/A&S event, October 21st. If you plan to submit material for this issue, please plan to get it to me no later than October 6th. While I hate to put a drop-dead date, and will certainly try to accommodate people who have late submissions, I do need to have extra time to create this issue. If you would also like your submission to receive Kingdom-wide distribution, let me know and I'll send a copy of it to the editor of The Maple. She is also looking for submissions. Her deadline is the end of September. Just a note of thanks for the wonderful artwork I have been given to use in the newsletter. It makes a big difference in the look and feel of the issues.

In Service, Lady Rhianna MacGregor

Artisans of Loch Salann

If you are planning on competing in the Baronial Arts and Sciences Competition held on October 21, 2000, please submit your application form to Baroness Mary Amanda no later than October 7, 2000. Those of you competing with written entries must submit your application no later than September 30, 2000, to give the judges enough time to read and pass around your work. Entry forms can be found on the back side of the calendar page.

Please contact HE Mary Amanda if you have any questions or concerns. Her contact information can be found on the back page of this issue.

Hospitaller's Office Report for August 22nd

There have been a number of new people interested in the organization, which is common since our move to the park. One family has come on several occasions expressing a desire for heavy fighting and the cook's guild. Cybil has introduced many friends to fighter's practice and Edana brought a new friend who wants to become a permanent addition to the Barony. Another new member stumbled upon our fighter's practice and was so warmly received she is turning in her membership forms. Also there are several returning members who have been away for several years. Thank you to all the members who have extended their time and hospitality into welcoming these new people and taking an active role in building our Barony.

Anyone who needs Known World Handbooks, please feel free to contact Edana or either of her deputies who will be able to help you. The cost is $15.

The Hospitaller's office is also glad to welcome a new deputy, Her Excellency Ferelith MacDonald. She is a long-time, knowledgeable and experienced member of the SCA, as well as introducing many other members of our Barony to the joys of the current middle ages. She is a wonderful asset in welcoming and educating our new members. She is available at: (801) 571-0375 or at claire@aros.net.

Thank you to all who have donated to the Baronial loaner garb collection. We are again especially in need of garb for average to small men as well as for any children's sizes. Also needed are accessories for repairing and fastening garb: buttons, laces, zippers. A necessary tool for new people at their first events is feast gear. If you have any donations, please contact Edana.

If you know of anyone who needs loaner garb or supplies for an event or on a semi-permanent basis, please call or email Edana and let her know sizes and preferences, so that she can accommodate. She is available at (801) 434-9384 or at chaundra.wilson@geodiscovery.com

In Service, Edana Lioness MacDonald

Harvest War XI

September 15 - 17, 2000 Box Elder Campground, Mantua Utah

The crops are growing, and it looks to be a bounteous harvest! But once again the terrible Grain Alliance seeks to thwart our valiant populace and raid them of their sustenance. Come one, Come all to aid the Shire of Cote du Ciel defend their lands and celebrate the harvest. Several scenarios are planned: open field, woods, ambushes, and the notorious Cote du Ciel boat battles. Armor inspection begins at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday and continues until we're all done. There will also be organized rapier events. And for the first time a caber toss with lord and lady sizes.

SITE: There is plenty of room, with water and facilities available. The site is Discreetly damp. There are no showers on site, but port-a-potties will be available. The site is a Forest Service campground and is near private residences. There will be separate noisy and quiet areas; please advise the troll as to which area you wish to camp in. The site opens Friday the 15th at noon and closes Sunday the 17th, also at noon.

FIRES: Regulations are based on weather conditions; there may possibly be no open flames allowed. Under the best conditions, open fires will be allowed only in pre-existing fire pits. Above ground fire pits are permitted pending fire restrictions. No tiki torches, etc. (Sorry)

PETS: Your pets are welcome, but must be leashed or otherwise confined at all times.

FEES: Site fee is $10 for overnight camping with a $35 family maximum and $6 for day-trippers, no charge for children under 12. Make checks payable to The Shire of Cote du Ciel, SCA Inc.

DIRECTIONS: Take your best route to Brigham City, Utah, along I-15. At Exit 364 turn east, go up the canyon on highway 89-91 toward Logan. Take the Mantua exit and follow the signs to the Box Elder campground. SCA signs will be posted in Mantua. Check out our online maps at <http://www.cs.usu.edu/~watson/coteduciel>

AUTOCRAT: Lady Heather of Cote du Ciel (mka Heather Smith) 557 Blvd. #1, Logan, UT 84321 (435) 755-8671

Greetings Populous of fair Loch Salann

We will be moving to our winter site on September 20th. The winter site is Evergreen Junior High School (3401 South 2000 East) again this year. As we are fighting in the cafeteria, please wear non-marking soles if at all possible. The best place to park is on the east side of the building.

Several changes are in the works for hardsuit standards. The least popular by far is the enforcement of the demi-gauntlet requirement that has been in the standards for at least two years. Word that I have from the Earl Marshal is that this standard will be enforced as of October 1. As of August 25, there is still no official publication of these standards, I will disseminate this information at fighter's practice as soon as I receive and understand them.

As most of the rapier fighters know, rapier standards are also changing. Again I have no official information, but will propagate it once I have it. This is the change that has been in the works for the last year.

For the quickest (but unofficial) access to the information when I receive it, subscribe to the Loch Salann mailing list:
<http://www.egroups.com/group/LochSalann>

LETTERS OF INTENT REQUESTED:

The deadline for submitting letters of intent for the position of List Minister has been extended to October 1, 2000. No experience is required—there are several good gentles who are willing to show you how to run this position. The only requirement is SCA membership.

Our MoAS will be stepping down soon. Baroness Mary Amanda will be accepting submissions for the Baronial A&S position NOW! An official announcement, including the cut off date for letters of intent, will be published in next month's Questing Quill. However, if you are interested in this position, please submit your letters ASAP. The deputy MoAS will be stepping up at Baroness Champion/Arts & Sciences as Acting MoAS until the position is filled. Contact HE Mary Amanda with any questions.

Unto the good fighters of Loch Salann

The heavy weapons forms for the Baroness' Champion List have been decided on and approved by Her Excellency Elyn. Each round a lot will be drawn to determine the weapon form to be used for the round. The forms will be: sword & shield, single sword, two swords, and sword & banner. For those of you without off arm armor, try to borrow an off arm. Loaner harness (gauntlets and arms) will be made available at the tourney, but if an off arm does not work with your harness you will fight single sword against two sword, and banner only against sword & banner. Last year Her Excellency decreed that dropping the banner in a sword & banner form would be counted as a loss, so the same may hold true this year.

Baroness' Champion Journey and A&S Champion Competition

October 21, 2000 Salt Lake City, Utah The Barony of Loch Salann

Our Noble Baron and Beloved Baroness have sent a call throughout their land that a champion must be found to protect and defend the Baroness. Therefore, on the third Saturday in October, shall a grand tournament be held that our fair Elyn may view the best fighters in her land (heavy and rapier) and thereby choose that gentle best able to serve her in the coming year.

On this same day, shall a competition be held to showcase the talents of the artisans of the Barony. Many shall be the trinkets, baubles, and prizes awarded to those artisans who demonstrate their skills on this day. The populace is encouraged to bring trinkets to recognize those artisans who find favor in their eyes. From amongst the artisans, shall a new champion of Arts and Science be chosen to represent the Barony for the coming year. All categories are allowed (including brewing), but pre-registration is required. Contact the HE Mary Amanda 801-485-0313 mafair@sisna.com or HL Heloise de Bec 801-281-2579 golson@inconnect.com for further information and forms.

As befits such a day of celebration, there shall be merchants, games, classes, dancing and feasting to fill the day for one and all. Those wondrous purveyors of goods (merchants) are encouraged to contact the autocrat to reserve space. Those with a talent for teaching should likewise contact the Minister of Arts and Science or her deputy that their talents might be shared with the many students eager to learn. Likewise doth the Minister seek judges fair that the work of the artisans may be both tabulated and encouraged. Please volunteer for this privilege.

Games there shall be for young and old including a "Rags to Riches" competition wherein garb shall be created in one day's time. Each entrant (or team of entrants) shall be given a pile of rags, bits and baubles, pins, and a dress model wherein to create garb for the model. Prizes shall be awarded for most period, most beautiful, most humorous, and other titles which the judges think appropriate. Bring your imagination.

The day shall conclude with a sumptuous feast prepared by a Master Chef whose hobby is medieval feast re-creation. Those attending do not need to bring feast gear but are encouraged to bring table décor and candles to add to the atmosphere. Dancing and celebrations with no set closing time will follow the feast.

Site:

Holiday Inn Airport ~ 1659 W. North Temple ~ Salt Lake City, UT 84116 (801) 533-9000 A block of rooms is available for reservation at a rate of $69/night single to quad occupancy. Reservations must be made by October 1, 2000. Block is under the name of Society for Creative Anachronism.

From the Cook's Corner

On the evening of August 1, 2000, a few members of the Cook's Guild met at the home of His Lordship Vogg, to prepare and partake of the wondrous meal he had planned for us. This meal consisted of a variety of foods from the Middle East (Cyprus, Iran and Lebanon) . The dishes were :Fakes Xithati (Sour Lentil Soup), Sheikh Al Mihshi (Stuffed Eggplant), Khoreshes Holu (Peach Sauce With Chicken), Chelou Ta Dig (Steamed Crusty Rice), Afelia II (Mushrooms With Coriander), and Dondurma Cileki (Strawberry Water Ice).

Unfortunately, due to some technical difficulties, namely a 4 1/2 hour power outage, some of the recipes were changed. They had to be adapted to cooking on a camp stove. The eggplant became a sort of stew, the crusty rice became "minute rice" and the strawberry ice became fresh strawberries. The food was still delicious. Imagine two camp stoves in a garage and eating in the driveway by candlelight, because the house was too warm.

After eating our fill, while enjoying a slight breeze. We decided to share the following recipe :

Fakes Xithati (Sour Lentil Soup)

2 cups brown lentils	1/3 cup olive oil
8 cups water	1/4 cup cold water
1 cup finely chopped green onions	1 Tablespoon flour
1 clove garlic, crushed	1/4 cup vinegar (or to taste)
1/4 cup finely chopped coriander leaves or parsley	Salt
	Freshly ground black pepper

Wash lentils in several changes of cold water, or place in sieve and run water through them. Drain. Put lentils in a large pot with 8 cups water, green onions, garlic, oil, and coriander or parsley (or a combination of the two if desired). Bring to a boil, cover pan and simmer on low heat for 1 hour or until lentils are soft. Make a smooth mixture of the flour and some water (roux). Pour this gradually into the boiling soup, stirring constantly until thickened slightly. Add vinegar, salt and pepper to taste. Return to a boil, boil gently for 5 minutes then serve hot. Tastes very good with a slight squeeze of lime juice. Serves 6.

The next scheduled meeting of the Cook's Guild is September 5, 2000, at Lordship Vogg's home. All are welcome and encouraged to come. The meal will be under the direction of Master and Mistress Mendeith, and will include homemade sausage. For more information or directions call Master Edward at 571-3678, of Lordship Vogg at 260-1939. Hope to see everyone there.

Happy Eating,
The Cook's Guild
