Greetings unto the Populace of Loch Salann..

It is with great pride that we do write these, our first of many, letters unto you. Many an idea and criticism has been brought our way recently, and we are putting forth great efforts to consider them all. Timmur and I are wrought with joy with the enthusiasm and creativity shown us thus far. Please, if you have an idea for an event, an award or possibly a suggestion on who should be receiving an award, put it in writing. By putting your suggestions on paper, we have a better chance at consulting each other, peers and populous on the many varying topics.

During the course of these following two years, both Timmur and I plan on doing a great deal of traveling. Contained within this newsletter, you will spy a calendar of events hosted locally, as well as far and wide. It is our wish to share the glories of Their Majesties most ancient Barony with others of the Kingdom and the Known World. Please, if you would like to join us on these journeys, let us know. It would be more than a pleasure and an honor to have you join us.

At this time, we would like to thank all of those that put forth their letters of intent for Captain of the Baronial Guard. Once again, the enthusiasm presented us did outshine that which we had initially expected. Gustav Grayheart has been chosen amongst the applicants for said position. Please take a moment to congratulate him on his arduous task ahead. We are interested in forming a rapier guard and we welcome your suggestions and comments.

His Excellency Sir Michael the Lucky will once again be hosting Melee Madness this June 2nd. At this time, we would like to meet with the companions of the Baronial Orders of the D.U.C.K, L.A.R.C and F.A.L.C.N. If you are unable to attend, we will make an effort to contact you at a later time.

Thank you for your support and enthusiasm once again. We look forward to an entertaining and fruitful tenure.

Sincerely,

Timmur and Tiana

Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann

Seneschal's Letter,

Greetings Unto the Populace of Loch Salann
Lady Meghan of Clan Sutherland sends greetings.

This will be my last missive as your Seneschal. Two years goes very fast. A lot has happened and I will have a lot to remember.

I would like to Thank my Officers. Over the last two years I have had the support of some of the most talented and dedicated people that I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. You are lucky to have these people willing to spend their spare time serving you. This is a volunteer organization and these people serve you because they want to. Please let them know that you appreciate what they do.

For those of you that did not make it to the populace meeting, I would like to let you know that your new Seneschal will be Mistress Leah de Spencer. This very highly qualified Lady also has the help of two talented Deputies. Rhianna ingen Cathail and the good gentle that has served you well as my Deputy for the past two years, Deborah Browning. I know that they will do an excellent job.

I have enjoyed the friendships, the advice given, and the support shown.

Cutpurse Journey

July 6-8, 2001 Dragon March Vernal, UT

I do hope this missive finds you well and good, and spirits high and intact,

I am writing this letter to inform you of the 4th annual Cutpurse Tourney. I am formally inviting you to attend, and would be honored if you would be able to grace us with your presence's. Please feel free to pass this missive on to others to read and consider.

It is to be held July 6th through the 8th, at the Iron Springs Camping Ground, Ashley Valley National Forest. Site opens at 4 pm on the 6th, and closes at 12 pm on the 8th. The site is wet, water is available, we are able to procure fire for this event, but as their Majesties have decreed, the burning of dirt is highly discouraged.

Pets are allowed on site with a leash or tether, and there is quiet time from 10 pm to 6 am.

Site fee will be $7 for adults with a $2 discount for members. Children 6-12 site fee is $3. There shall be a breaking of the fast on the 8th that the fighters of Dragonmarch shall prepare for our guests. The break feast is $4 for adults, $2 for children.

I am the Autocrat and Feastocrat, so any concerns or questions can be sent to me at the following missive services:

Minister of Arts & Sciences Report

IN A SURPRISING WIN ... well ok, so most of us weren't surprised, but it was a surprise to the competitor who was certain throughout the day that he didn't measure up to the other works displayed and would be lucky to walk away with a couple of "nice effort" comments ... Lord Draco de la Rose continued the new tradition of the Loch Salann Arts and Sciences Champion going on to become the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Champion. Congratulations Lord Draco.

The Arts and Sciences competition for the Kingdom of Artemisia was hosted by our Barony on May 5, 2001. Those of you who were unable to attend missed an awe-inspiring event. The artistic works displayed were so well done and so well documented that you just wanted to start working in that area that day. Members stepped forth and volunteered to judge and even the newest judges did fine work in that area. Our own Dame Varia announced new rules about the process for complaints and all I talked to agree that the new process helped to make this one of the best competitions they have seen. And of course, Mistress "Holly" de Bec showed once again how to host a kingdom level event, do a tremendous amount of work, organize everything, take care of last minute emergencies and make it all look easy (honestly, I only saw her yawn once during the day). To all who participated or helped in this event - I say a large VIVAT!!!

However, the future is almost upon us. Coming up in June is the Laurel's Prize Tourney at Uprising. I know we have discussed Prize Tourneys before but let me just put in one more quick plug for them. Take up a project, it doesn't even have to be finished you can work on it while sitting at the tourney, and participate. You will never find a better place to have the best artisans in the kingdom and beyond sit and talk personally with you about your work and what you are doing. Besides, our laurels give out some of the niftiest (is that a real word?) trinkets in the known world. And some of them bring along one or two really nice prizes as well. This is a great non-competitive environment for learning and growing. And for those of you who don't enter, come on by and see what is there. You actually get to meet and talk to the artists and may even become inspired in a new area yourself.

And the last reminder for this newsletter, Baronial Arts and Sciences competition is October 20, 2001. Are you already working on your entries??? If you need any help, advice, or referrals to those who know your area, give me a call.

Exchequer's Report:

Unto the Good Populace of Loch Salann, I Morag the Wanderer, send greetings!

The last month we hosted a wonderful Kingdom Art and Sciences Competition. The event was a success and we were able to make a good contribution to our Kingdom Coiffers as well as to The Sugarhouse Boys and Girls Club.

Good populace, it is also nearing the end of my Warrant I am asking for Letters of Intent. You will need 4 copies and they need to be turned into Mistress Leah (Baronial Seneschal), Their Excellencies - Timmur and Tianna, HL Morwena (Kingdom Exchequer), and myself. These letters need to be in no later than 1 September 2001.

Duties of the Exchequer include: running the check in/troll table at local events, maintaining accurate financial records for the Barony and reporting this information to the Kingdom Exchequer, assisting the financial committee and working with Autocrats and other members of the Barony who need to acquire funds for their office or event. This is a great way to meet your fellow friends and neighbors that play in this great Kingdom. It is also a great way to put all those names with the faces they belong too! If you have any questions please feel free to ask.

In Service,

Lady Morag

Uprising XV

June 7-10, 2001 Barony One Thousand Eyes

Ririe, ID

Greetings unto all! Baron Uggedei Mighan Nidun and his lady Baroness Diedre of Kerry, are proud to host within the Barony of One Thousand Eyes Uprising Part XV, June 7-10, 2001 at beautiful Mountain River Ranch in Ririe, Idaho. Come and have fun, and join us in Uprising against boredom, mundanity and peace!

There will be fighting, bridge battles, butterfly chasing, rapier fighting, woods battles, rope jumping (in armor?), equestrian events, archery, and more! We are planning to set up four erics in the center of Town Square for tourneys. A Laurel's Prize Tourney and a Laurel's Bardic Prize Tourney are being planned, as well as a full slate of classes. For those moments between classes and battles, there will be merchants, lots and lots of merchants!

The site will open at noon on Thursday, June 7, 2001, and will close at noon on Sunday, June 10. The site fee is $16.00 for those 13 years or older, and $8.00 for ages 6-12, with $2.00 off for members, and a maximum family price of $45.00. Only above ground fire pits will be allowed, and there will be firewood for sale. NO PETS will be allowed. Horses will be allowed for the equestrian games, and the cost of stalls will be $10.00 per day, excluding feed.

Classes offered this year include: Beginning and Advanced Needlepoint, Snood Making, Writing Shakespearean Sonnets, Metal Casting, Persona Development, Being an Officer, Patterning, Blacksmithing, Felting, Heraldry, Tour of the Stables, Blackwork, Middle Eastern Footwork, and MORE!

The directions to Uprising XV :

From the North, South, or West:

From I-15, find US 26 by taking Exit #119, US 20 West Yellowstone. Turn East on to US 20. After little less than 1 mile, take Science Center Drive Exit. Follow the Exit to the right, (Science Center Drive will become Anderson Dr.) and at the third light, turn Left onto Yellowstone Highway. There is a McDonalds on the right side of the Intersection. You are now on US 26 eastbound. At this point it is a little more than 17 miles to the next turn. Go through Idaho Falls and follow the road towards Jackson. Turn left off of US 26 at the sign for Mountain River Ranch, just after mile marker #352. Follow this road, and go straight at the 4-way stop. When the road forks, about 1 ½ miles from the stop sign, stay to the right. At about another mile you will see the large gate and sign for Mountain River Ranch. Turn right before the gate and take this dirt road about a half mile and the entrance will be on your right.

From the East:

Take US 26 through Swan Valley, go past the rest stop about 5 miles, and turn right off US 26 at the sign for Mountain River Ranch, just before mile marker #352. Follow directions above from Follow this road, and go straight at the 4-way stop. When the road forks, about 1 ½ miles from the stop sign, stay to the right. At about another mile you will see the large gate and sign for Mountain River Ranch. Turn right before the gate and take this dirt road about a half mile and the entrance will be on your right. THERE WILL BE SIGNS !!!

Loch Salann Melee Madness

June 2-3, 2001 Barony of Loch Salann Provo, UT

Over 19 years in one place, enjoyed by hundreds! My, how time flies! Yes, once again the annual Loch Salann Melee Madness event will occur June 2-3 at its ancient and honorable site at the castle in back of the Utah State Hospital in Provo, Utah. The site will officially OPEN by 8:00 a.m. on Sat., and CLOSE around sunset on Sunday; however, those who are camping onsite may set up Fri. night after 7:30 (check with the event steward). Opening announcements are tentatively planned for 10:30 a.m. on Sat. (or whenever HE Timmur and the event steward think that enough fighters have shown up). In keeping with sacred, honored and moss-covered tradition, the mood of the event will be laid-back and mellow. The rule of combat for the Saturday activities is no one-on-one battles; i.e., all challenges must have a minimum of two fighters vs. one. With luck the staircase and ramp battles might be run a little differently this year (depending on the number of fighters present), but fighters are still strongly encouraged to create their own situations and complications. To get in the most fighting, the earlier the fighters begin fighting, the better (and cooler) it will be; take the hint. Sunday morning, there will be a pas d'armes held by HL Kyle and HL Isabeau; see him for details.

If you've ever wanted to run/sponsor and activity/contest (fighting or non-fighting) this is the place to do it; just clear it with the autocrat and appropriate coordinator. Even though this year's event will be a 2-day activity, participants are encouraged to come early, and bring picnic lunches and sunshades/tents (although there are numerous shade trees). This is a very dry site! Because this is a state facility, anyone bringing alcoholic beverages onsite or found to be in an inebriated condition will be politely asked to leave immediately! Merchants for provisions and gastronomic repasts are only 2-3 minutes away, and while open fires are not permitted, hibachis and gas grills are. Pets are welcome if accompanied by responsible owners. Cars can be unloaded at the field, but must be parked in the lot at the bottom of the hill (about 200 ft. away) immediately afterwards.

The SITE FEE is $5.00 for adults and children 13 yrs. Old and older (babes in arms are free and pregnant ladies get a $1 rebate); per family price cap of $20 (not household!). Make checks payable to "Barony of Loch Salann, SCA Inc."

DIRECTIONS: Take I-15 to the Provo Center Street exit; drive east on Center St. (about 2 miles) and enter the hospital grounds. Continue east and turn left at the large planter in the road; follow the road around and up to the castle area (the "off limits" signs aren't meant for us).

P.S. bring your cameras, it's one of the area's most beautiful sites (sights?)

Event steward/fighting Coordinator: Sir Michael the Lucky (Michael Huston), 801-394-2433, e-mail: sirmill@hotmail.com or sirmill@aol.com

Henry III

(part two in a continuing genealogy of the Plantagenets)

By Fiona the Norseman's Daughter

Henry was born in 1133, the first of three sons of Geoffrey and Matilda. When Stephen died in 1154, he was welcomed as King by England's war weary nobility. He set about restoring the power of the king in a land where it had been greatly eroded, recovering for the crown land that had been lost to it under Stephen. He sponsored the invasion of Ireland in 1171 by Richard FitzGilbert de Clare, called Strongbow (yes, that's where all that trouble started!).

Henry had boundless energy and was in constant motion around his vast domains. He never lost his love of active outdoor pursuits such as hunting. He was tall, with broad shoulders and much strength and endurance; usually dressed informally. He was courteous and charming, with a good sense of humor but had the infamous Angevin temper and his rages were legendary. He was quick to take offense if his authority as king were threatened. He was a scholar, as well.

Henry's Queen, Eleanor of Aquitaine, one of the best known women of the middle ages, was one of the most vivid and remarkable figures of the time. Eleanor was portrayed in numerous Robin Hood movies of the 1940s and '50s as a sweet, slightly dumpy lady sitting, overlooking the archery field or protecting Maid Marion. This portrayal seems very unlike the picture of Eleanor that comes down through history. Born in 1122, the eldest child and heiress of William X, Duke of Aquitaine, Eleanor was married in 1137 to Louis VII of France, who was a devout and pious man. Too devout and pious for Eleanor, who likened being married to him as being married to a monk, not a king, and was granted a divorce 21 March 1152. She had given her first husband only girls, Mary and Alice. She wasted no time marrying Henry. He was 19; she was about 30. Henry she gave five sons and three daughters—and some of the best-known personages in English history. When she turned against Henry later in life, he felt compelled to imprison her for sixteen years to keep her from tearing apart his kingdom.

Henry's love for his mistress Rosamund Clifford, "Fair Rosamund," may have been cause for his falling out with Eleanor. She can't be blamed for his conflicts with his sons, however. Henry provided grand titles to his oldest sons: Henry was set to get Normandy, Maine, and Anjou; Richard to get Aquitaine; and Geoffrey to get Brittany. Even John was titled "Lord of Ireland." But his sons, typical Angevin get, preferred power to title. Urged on by their mother, Eleanor, between 1172 and 1186 they rose in various combinations against their father. Henry tried to assure a peaceful succession by having his son Henry, called the Young King, crowned during his lifetime but young Henry died in 1182, before Henry II. In 1188, Richard was at war, with King Philip of France, with Henry. Already ill when he was defeated at Le Mans, Henry died on 6 July 1189, at Chinon, France.

1. William, b. 17 August 1152, d. April 1156.
2. Henry, the Young King, b. 28 March 1155, d. 11 June 1182. m. Margaret of France 20 Nov 1160.
3. Matilda, b. June 1156, d. 28 June 1189, m. Henry V, Duke of Saxony and Bavaria 1 February 1167/68. Parents of Emperor Otto IV.
4. Richard I, King of England, Lionheart, b. 13 September 1157, d. 6 April 1199 of gangrene caused by an arrow wound. M. Berengaria of Navarre May 1191. Richard had promised to marry Alice, sister of Philip of France. Before he could, however, his mother introduced him to Berengaria, daughter of the King of Navarre. Richard married her, instead.
5. Geoffrey, b. 23 September 1158, d. 19 September 1186. M. Constance Countess of Brittany. . He had married Constance of Brittany and fathered a son, Arthur of Brittany, who had a claim to the throne. Arthur was taken prisoner by John's forces at Mirebeau, taken to Falaise, then to Rouen in 1203. He was never seen again and probably died at the hands, directly or indirectly, of John, who had always been threatened by the existence of the young man and his claim to the throne.

SUMMER DEMOS
Greetings Good Populace!
I am putting forth a cry for help unto our great Barony.

We have been asked to participate in 2 demos this summer. Below I have provided a brief description of each demo. If we get the ENTIRE Barony to help just 1 demo each (of course you are welcome to help with both) then we can pull off some really fabulous demos and show the mundane world what the SCA and the Dream are all about. If you have any questions please feel free to ask and I will try and answer as best as I can!

If you would be willing to help with any of these demos please contact myself using my contact information that is found in the back of this Quill or on our Baronial Web Site!

Thank you all for your willingness to help!

YIS,
Lady Morag the Wanderer

Summer Demo Descriptions

Hemophilia Summer Camp –(tentative date) Thursday 2 August 2001 from 6-10pm in Tooele. I am still waiting for a call from Mr. Petty on all the details of this demo, but so far.... The theme of the camp this year is Robin Hood in Sherwood Forest. They have planned a rope course, making tabards, archery & attempting to fletch arrows. They would like some Hard Suit as well as Rapier fighting demos some dancing demo/participation, as they are doing archery I am sure they would like some help in this area as well.

Utah State Fair – Sunday 9 September 2001 at the State Fair Grounds on North Temple. We are attempting to set up another demo with the Utah State Fair. We used to do demos at the fair about 7 years ago. Part of their requirements are that we occupy the site from 10 am –10 pm on 09-09-01. I will be asking people to volunteer for at least a 2-hour time slot on this date. You will receive free entry into the fair. We have enough room to set up a couple of Erics for both heavy and light fighting. As well as room to set up either the Baronial Pavilion or a few private ones. I would like to have the musicians there as well as some other artisans doing various things like illumination, spinning, weaving, dancing, playing period games etc. In the past this has been a great demo for gaining new members in our Great Barony.

From the Cook's Corner

The Cook's Guild spent the evening of May 1, 2001, gathered at the home of Lordship Vogg, preparing a lovely feast of Scottish food. The feast was under the direction of Master Edward and Mistress Margaret. They were joined in the preparations by Mistress Casamira, Lordship Vogg, Lordship James, and Lady Constance.

The foods we prepared were Barley Broth, Forfar Bridies, and Montrose Cakes. Yes, the Scottish DO eat more than Cock a Leekie and Haggis. These recipes were simple to prepare but wonderfully delicious. After an evening of jokes, puns, and much good food, the following recipe was chosen to share.

Montrose Cakes

|                |                             |
|----------------|-----------------------------|
| 2 cups flour   | 10 oz. currants (optional)  |
| 2 cups sugar   | 2 Tablespoons brandy        |
| 1 pound butter | 1 Tablespoon rosewater      |
| 1 dozen eggs   | 2-3 teaspoons grated nutmeg |

Cream together the butter and sugar. Add well beaten eggs in small degrees. Then slowly add the flour. Mix well. Add the currants, brandy, rosewater, and nutmeg. Beat all until well blended, about 15 minutes in a mixer. Place batter in small buttered tins (cupcake pans will do) filling them half way. Cook in a 350 degree oven for 20 to 25 minutes or until the tops have browned nicely. Eat as is or serve with cream.

The Cook's Guild hopes you enjoy this recipe and invite all interested parties to attend. We will NOT be holding Cook's Guild in June due to Uprising. In July it will be held the SECOND Tuesday of the month, being July 10, 2001, so as not to conflict with the holiday. At that time Mistress Casamira will orchestrate a Polish feast. For more information contact Master Edward 801 571-3678, of His Lordship Vogg 801 260-1939. We hope to see everyone there.

Happy Eating,
The Cook's Guild

Clothier's Guild:

Clothiers guild is making field mantles for the new Crown Prince and Princess and perhaps repairing or replacing the ones for the Baron/Baroness... they will be meeting every Monday until Coronation.

Archery Information:

Hi All! The next archery practice is on the 24th (Thursday) at 6:30pm at the Lee Kay Center. (6000 W 2100 South) The cost is $2, with free 60cm targets and drinks provided by Michael the Loud. Bring your bug spray!!! It is an outdoor range, so practice will be canceled if the weather is bad. This range has some longer distances, so we will be shooting IKAC, Royal Rounds for archery rank, and Artemisian Archery Challenge. Please note that all your equipment must be SCA legal if you are going to submit scores. You do not need SCA legal equipment to practice. Contact me if you have any questions.

Here's the latest on summer archery from the Archer General:

There will be archery at Uprising! spread the word, and plan for scheduling as follows:

Friday: Artemisian Archery Challenge, final shoot of the season

Royal Round or IKAC (??)

Saturday: Prize Shoot run by HL Don Gryffudd

Another shoot???

Finally, there will be archery at Coronation! I am heading up the range to run the 2nd Artemisian Archery Championships, the prize being named "Protector of the Gryphon's Arrows" and a place on Their Majesties entourage. While I am keeping the actual championship tourney undisclosed at this time (partially because I have to make sure we have the range to ourselves that day) I will ask if anyone is interested in shooting a Royal Round that day as well (time permitting). We have a 3 hour window to shoot the Championship, but it should get done early enough that we can probably fit in a Royal Round as well. Anyone interested? The Championship shoot will be for both handbow and Crossbow entries, each with its own advantages/disadvantages. Speed will be a factor in the shoot, so keep this in mind when considering which bow to bring. Let me describe the archery range: It is a Boise Parks & Rec range, managed by the Treasure Valley Bowhunters Association. It is a very Nice range in a small basin about 1/4 mile from site. There is no shade (bring some!) but there are some picnic tables to lay equipment on, a port-a-john, a gravel shooting area, wood archery line, dirt with some scrub range, and the targets are compressed carpet with thick mats Around it (slightly sheltered) held on a metal frame. I have shot my crossbow at the targets, and the bolts don't sink all the way in, even without any paper or cardboard in front. There have been some cases of bounce back, but I hope to use some foamboard at Coronation to reduce that.

And from Marcello re. Uprising archery:

Here's my tentative schedule as I sent to the website:

Friday- AAC, children's royal round, IKCAC

Saturday- IKAC, Prize shoot

Range open at 10, shoots at 11,1,etc....

-Marcello

Now is a good time to get in some last minute practicing for these events!
