A message from the Baron and Baroness

Unto the populace of the Barony of Loch Salann, Hoggar and Bronwyn, Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann send greetings:

We had an excellent time at Crown Tournament last weekend and hope you all did as well. The Shire of Cote du Ciel hosted a magnificent event and deserves our sincere thanks for all their efforts. Congratulations to Their Royal Highnesses Lochlan and Vigdis. We look forward to working with them in the Future.

Congratulations are also due to HL Connall Ua Doibhilen who has been sent on Vigil to contemplate entering the Order of the Chivalry and to answer at Melee Madness.

Event Season has well and truly begun and we hope to see many of you at the many upcoming events. We are planning on attending Castle Crusade, Constantinople No more, and Quest in May. Melee Madness and Uprising in June and King's Road, Dragon's Tear, and Baron's War in July. We look forward to days filled with fighting, classes, shenanigans, and evenings telling stories and recounting the experiences that only the SCA can bring.

If that list of events isn't enough the RenFaire demo at Thanksgiving Point is coming up August 23-25th and there will be many opportunities to meet people and interest them in The Dream. The RenFaire staff has contracted a caterer to cook and serve feast this year, so we will not be assisting them with their feast. We can focus solely on the Barony's booth and show the passersby what the SCA is all about.

There are plenty of volunteer opportunities and many hands really do make light work and as always if there are ideas or questions you have please feel free to contact us.

Until then we remain ever in your Service,
Hoggar and Bronwyn
Baron and Baroness of Loch Salann

Help Wanted

No great machine may function without all its parts, and likewise, no Barony can remain great without the help of many hands.

In this issue of the Questing Quill, we launch a new feature to share information of the needs of the Barony. If you are looking for an opportunity to serve, please consider some of these new entrants to maintain the Dream, and the Barony of Loch Salann.

Help Wanted in the Barony of Loch Salann

We are looking for a land coordinator for Uprising. If you are willing to volunteer contact the Baron and Baroness

The Barony is in need of a Thrown Weapons Captain. This is not an opportunity you want to throw away, so toss your name to the Baron and Baroness!

The Exchequer's warrant expires in August and Mistress Jerilyn is looking for a deputy to learn the job and take over the position. Letters of Intent need to be sent to the Exchequer, the Seneschal, and the Baron and Baroness.

The RenFaire Demo is going to be here sooner than expected. This is an excellent opportunity for recruitment but it will require many volunteers. More information will be coming in future posts.

His Grace Timmur is looking for a deputy to learn the office of Chatelaine so he may pass it on when his warrant expires in a year. If your interested contact His Grace.

Do YOU have something you need help with? Post it in the Questing Quill! It's the right price, and a great way to find the help you need to make the Dream real.

Melee Madness

Friday, May 31, 2019

After 36 Years (more or less) The Ramp of Despair is still giggling at you! The Staircase of Doom continues to give you the finger behind your back! Come help us celebrate yet another Loch Salann Melee Madness!! This unique & ancient event will occur on June 1st & 2nd 2019, at its equally unique, incredibly ancient and honorable site at the castle in back of the Utah State Hospital in Provo, Utah. Fighting, archery, thrown weapons, relaxing in the sun – what more could you want? Come on out! Join the crowd! Enjoy the day! Opening announcements are tentatively planned for 10:00 am on Saturday (or whenever the event steward thinks that enough fighters have shown up).

The more fighters we have, the more fun the castle siege scenarios will be!! While all this is going on, the competitions for Baronial archery and thrown weapons champions will also be taking place. On Sunday morning, weather allowing, House Catwing & Hold Tyte will hold their annual pas d'armes, open to all fighters; see the event steward for details. Bring your nicest banners and fighting clothes, and display your skills at weapons and words.

If you ever wanted to run/sponsor an activity/contest or teach (fighting or non-fighting), this is the place to do it; just clear it with the event steward and appropriate coordinator.

While the site will officially OPEN by 8 :00 am on Saturday, and CLOSE at 10:00 pm on Sunday, we will be allowed to set up tents Friday night after 5:30 pm. Unless told otherwise, camping is only allowed this year on the field in front of the castle; please contact the event steward beforehand if you plan on camping overnight.

Even though this will be a 2-day activity, participants are encouraged to come early and bring picnic lunches and sunshades/tents (although there are numerous shade trees). This is a very dry site! Because this is a state facility, anyone bringing alcoholic beverages onsite or found to be in an inebriated condition must be politely asked to leave immediately! Off-site merchants are only 4-6 minutes away, and while ground fires or open flames are not permitted, off-ground fire pits, hibachis and gas grills are.

Site: Utah State Hospital, 1300 E. Center St., Provo, UT 84603. Site opens at 8:00 am Saturday, June 1st, and closed at 10:00 pm, Sunday, June 2nd.

Site is Dry. Pets are welcome if accompanied by responsible owners.

Site fee: Adult Event Registration fee (18 years and over) $15.

Adult Member Discount Event Registration fee (18 years and over) $10.

Please make checks payable to: SCA Inc., Barony of Loch Salann.

Directions: Take I-15 to the Provo Center Street exit 267; drive east on Center St. (about 2 miles) and enter the hospital grounds. Continue east and turn left at the large planter in the road; follow the road around and up to the castle area (the “off limits” signs aren’t meant for us).

Barons War!

Friday, July 19, 2019

At the height of summer whisperings have been heard around the Great Lands of Artemisia. Whisperings of misplaced things.

First, a few small seafaring vessels went missing. A moose (pardon, an elk) or two seemed to have walked away. It appears that our cousins to the north have misplaced some water fowl while others have had colorful birds simply fly away. Stranger still, from the north we have heard of the unfortunate misplacement of some bronze helms.

What could possibly be happening to cause all of this? We can only be grateful that these unfortunate events seemed to have left the Fair Barony of Loch Salann unscathed. How fortunate we have been!

Moving on to fun things now! Have you seen the Baroness' new boat? It is a beauty! And the Baron's new helm is such a lovely bronze color! How fortunate our Barony is! Come celebrate our good fortune at Baron's war within the Barony of Loch Salann!

Craft Room of the MOAS

Populace, I present to you a challenge!

We are past the Baronial arts and sciences competition this year and it is time to look forward to next year's competition! The format will be the same as this year: in order to enter for champion you must enter 3-5 items in 2 grand categories. BUT! As your MOAS I have an additional challenge to offer you!

I present: The Persona Triathlon!

I was inspired by the Persona Pentathlons held in other kingdoms to create a slightly smaller challenge for our competition. I will provide a handmade token to each person who chooses to take on this additional challenge and completes it.

In order to meet the challenge you must:

- Enter three items from three of the categories below. (Or five if you want to take the full Persona Pentathlon challenge! You only need to enter three to fulfill my challenge, but if you're an overachiever you should definitely do you boo!). If you have any questions about which category an item belongs in please contact me.
- There can be no overlap of categories (ie. an embroidered coif that is entered as both category 1 and category 5). It must be three separate items.

- Provide documentation for each item you present.
- Present the items in the Baronial Arts and Sciences competition or Artisans Display at Defenders Tourney in A.S. LIV (2020).
- You do not need to be a member of the Barony to participate in the challenge or to enter Arts and Sciences, but only a member of the Barony may become Baronial Champion or Defender.

Categories:

Category 1: Garb/fiber arts/fabric decoration (clothing, embroidery, weaving, lace making, etc)

Category 2: Food/drink (cooked, brewed, smoked, aged. Anything you can eat or drink)

Category 3: Tools/implements (could include tools for making things, musical instruments, dishes, utensils, etc)

Category 4: Performance/fine arts (carving, performing, writing, painting, etc)

Craft Room of the MOAS

Category 5: Accessories (jewelry, millinery, toys, etc)

Category 6: Manuscript and scribal arts (calligraphy, illumination, papermaking, bookbinding, etc)

Category 7: Miscellaneous (anything that doesn't quite fit in another category)

For more information, please contact:

The Noble Maysun, Baronial MOAS
moas@loch-salann.org

But wait, there's more!

Starting in May we will have a monthly arts and sciences evening!

The general format will be one hour of themed ask questions/get guidance time and one hour of "do your art" time. It's hard to explain, but once we get going it will make sense.

This month we will be meeting at:
Hunter Library at 7pm on the 15th
(4740 W 4100 S, West Valley City, UT 84120).

The first hour will be Scribal themed, so...have a scroll you need to get started?

Want to try out some basics? Always been curious but didn't even know where to start? I'll have paints, brushes, pens, and supplies for you to try it out!

We'll round table some tips on getting started, laying out a scroll, resources to look at, etc. If you don't have a Scribal project still come!

There's space to work on different projects and artistic company is awesome! The second hour will be general arting time. Keep practicing with the Scribal stuff or work on a different project. We'll all be there to chat, but I want everyone to have the opportunity to work on their own projects, so no teaching will happen during the second hour.

Happy New Year!

It is with joy in my heart that I welcome May, and you to the year LIV Anno Societatis! Our Society has entered its 54th year, covering from May of 2019 to the end of April 2020, in the Common Era.

For our newer members, the Society began its own reckoning of year based on the first ever Society for Creative Anachronism tournament, held on May 1st, 1966, in what would become the Kingdom of the West. Look to history.westkingdom.org/Year1/FirstTournament.htm for the lovely account of the beginning of our great Society.

It is this time of year that we reflect on many things. As the weather turns, we return outdoors for our practices of fighting, archery, and thrown weapons. There has been a new rebirth of Artemisian Equestrian. We have the pleasure of welcoming new heirs to our Kingdom. Camping season begins!

The question I propose to you in this issue, dear reader, is what will you next begin? May is a time of growth, and inspiration. Let us make our New Year's resolutions and think about what you will create over the summer.

It can be hard to imagine that one person, or even a handful of friends working together, change the world we experience... but they have.

If a handful of friends in the Spring of 1966 can come together for a bit of dress up and fun, and create not a club, not an organization, but an entire Dream shared across the wide world, who's to say what you do today, what steps you take tomorrow won't provide the same?

Perhaps you won't create a new Society, but your little beginnings make the Society better for someone. Probably a few more someones than you realize. Perhaps more someones than you'll ever know.

So, I invite you to join me in celebrating this new year, this new spring, this 54th year of our shared Dream. What is your resolution? What will your new year bring?

My resolution? I want to share the Dream. I want to remember what I saw in my first glimpse in 1988, when my family happened to be walking through Sugarhouse Park with ice cream cone in hand, and got to see the Middle Ages come to life. Or when I began making my first carpet armor as a senior in high school under the advice of a Knight named Fitz, or learned to dance at USU with Azlac (the Awful), or when I found it all again ten years later, and an enormously patient Baron Ryryd introduced me to an equally patient rapier marshal Turi. I want to share the inspiration upon first meeting (at the time) Princess Sage. I want to remember how those hands shaped my experience and shared the Dream. I want to remember, so I can hope to share my Dream with the next young person with an ice cream cone in hand who comes up, wondering what it's all about.

Fresh Fruit Compote & A Brief Timeline of Fruit

In celebration of Spring, Lady Alix D'Orleans has shared another delicious recipe, and some just as satisfying history on the history of fruit!

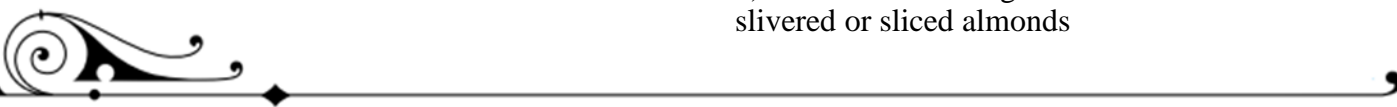

This recipe was a simple way people ate their fruits. In the last section is a partial timeline of fruits from the earliest known history through about 1700. Compotes can be made from any fruit (the reason for the different images). There is also one bit of note I also thought the readers might find interesting.

Fresh Fruit Compote

Ingredients

1 cup sugar
2 tart apples
3 plums
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice (DO NOT use bottled juice)
1 cup currants or raisins (if you use raisins I suggest the golden variety for appearances)
4 cups water
2 peaches
1 cup fresh strawberries
2 to 3 cinnamon sticks
½ cup of slivered or sliced almonds (for garnish)

Directions:

- 1) Add the sugar to the water in a large pot. Heat to boiling.
  - 2) Wash, pare, quarter, core, and slice the apples and peaches into ¼ inch thickness. Put in a bowl and set aside
  - 3) Wash and clean the plums and strawberries. Cut into ¼ inch pieces and add to the bowl of apples and peaches.
  - 4) Add fruit, lemon juice, almond extract, and spices to the syrup.
  - 5) Heat the mixture on a medium heat until it simmers.
  - 6) Simmer for about 10 minutes. Pour into individual serving containers.
  - 7) Refrigerate until cool.
  - 8) Serve chilled and garnished with a few slivered or sliced almonds

Fresh Fruit Compote & A Brief Timeline of Fruit

Fruit

Some people have shown an interest in my articles that have also mentioned the history of some foods. Three really good websites are:

<http://www.localhistories.org/fruits.html>,

<http://www.foodtimeline.org/fruit.html>, and

<http://www.gardenguides.com/82843-history-fruits-vegetables.html>.

Here are some of the mentions of fruit on that website:

35,000 BC Fruits, nuts, roots were being gathered for food but there has been no evidence of cultivation.

11,000 BC Figs trees may have been domesticated. Dried figs found in the lower Jordan Valley in Israel (2006) have been dated to about 11,400 BC. They are a variety that is sterile, so the people may have learned to cultivate new trees by planting shoots.

7,000 BC Apples possibly cultivated in southwestern Asia.

6,000 BC Citrus fruit ancestor (citron) may have been grown in India at this time.

4,000 BC Grapes were probably being cultivated in the area southeast of the Black Sea (Afghanistan, etc.)

3,500 BC Based on excavations of the Early Bronze Age, it is believed that the pomegranate was one of the first cultivated fruits.

Alix's Kitchen

Fresh Fruit Compote & A Brief Timeline of Fruit

3,000 BC Egyptian tomb paintings picture fish ponds and fruit trees.

2,000 BC Olives, peaches and apricots cultivated in Eastern Mediterranean.

1,600 BC The pomegranate was brought to Egypt from Syria during the rule of the Hyksos.

1,325 BC Tutankhamen tomb contained seeds and plant products including watermelon, lentils, almond, date palm, cumin and coriander.

957 BC Pillars in Solomon's temple in Jerusalem were decorated with pomegranates.

255 BC The term 'don't upset the apple cart' was first used by Roman playwright Plautus in 255 B.C. in his play 'Epiducus'.

125 BC Pomegranates were introduced to China.

1521 Spanish missionaries planted the first pomegranate trees in the New World. From Mexico, the pomegranate was transported north to missions in California and Texas.

1553 Prospero Alpini was born and he is said to have introduced coffee and bananas to Europe and to have been the first to artificially fertilize date palms.

1600 The blood orange is believed to have developed by natural mutation in Sicily.

Alix's Kitchen

Fresh Fruit Compote & A Brief Timeline of Fruit

1633 Bananas were supposedly displayed in the shop window of merchant Thomas Johnson. This was the first time the banana had ever been seen in Great Britain. It would be more than 200 years before they were regularly imported. In 1999 remains of a banana were found at a Tudor archaeological site on the banks of the Thames River. This would seem to date it 150 years earlier than Thomas Johnson's banana. A classic food mystery!

1659 Jan van Riebeeck, the first governor of the Cape of Good Hope, South Africa, planted a vineyard in 1655. On February 2, 1659 he made the first wine from grapes grown at the Cape.

Additional Notes On Fruit

Cranberries, Concord Grapes and Blueberries are the only major fruits native to North America.
